Isola Bella is the most spectacular of the Borromean Islands, located on the Italian side of Lake Maggiore. Visit the magnificent 16th-century villa and stroll through one of the most beautiful gardens in the world.

A funicular ride to the top of Switzerland's Monte Brè offers magnificent views of the resort towns of Lake Lugano.

shops leading to the Piazza Cavour and the tranquil lakeside promenade. The Cattedrale di Como, considered to be the most beautiful cathedral in Lombardy, took nearly 400 years to complete and reflects a seamless blend of Gothic and Renaissance styles.

Lake Como

Composer Franz Liszt romanticized, “When you write the story of two happy lovers, place them on the shores of Lake Como.” Cruise by private boat across the sparkling waters of Italy’s deepest—and perhaps most spectacular—lake. Its allure is enhanced by quaint coastal villages like Bellagio and Varenna, and grand Renaissance villas built on the snow-capped mountainsides surrounding Lake Como.

Varenna

Splendidly located on the shores of Lake Como, Varenna’s narrow, pine-shaded streets lead through the village’s beautifully preserved medieval center. It is famous as the source for the quarried black marble used to decorate the floors of Milan’s famous Duomo as well as the villas and cathedrals throughout Lombardy.

Bellagio

Perched on a promontory punctuated by cypress trees, Bellagio is one of the Lake District’s most famous towns and has been a popular European holiday destination since Roman times. In the 18th and 19th centuries, Milanese nobility flocked here to build elaborate villas and cultivate sub-tropical gardens.

Villa del Balbianello

Just across the lake from Bellagio is the exquisite Villa del Balbianello and its magnificent terraced gardens. Built in 1787 by Cardinal Angelo Maria Durini, it was renovated in the early 20th century by an American veteran of World War I and more recently purchased by Italy’s first explorer to summit Mt. Everest, Guido Monzino, who bequeathed it to the Italian National Trust. Today, it remains an authentic Italian villa masterpiece and repository of 18th-century French and English furniture and Monzino’s collection of Chinese, pre-Columbian and African art.

Lake Maggiore

Italy’s second-largest lake forms a natural boundary between the regions of Lombardy and Piedmont and is a close rival to Lake Como as the most remarkable in the Lake District. Lake Maggiore’s mild climate allows for the gardens to grow rare and exotic plants in the beautiful landscape beneath the high Alps. The deep, clear waters were a draw and inspiration for Flaubert, Wagner and Goethe.

Borromean Islands

Cruise among Lake Maggiore’s enticing islands graced with elegant villas and striking natural beauty. Isola Bella, Isola di San Giovanni, Isola Madre and Isola dei Pescatori are collectively known as the Borromean Islands, Visit Milan’s towering Duomo on the Pre-Program option, home to some of Italy’s finest religious art.

HOTEL REGINA OLGA

Overlooking Lake Como in the charming village of Cernobbio, HOTEL REGINA OLGA combines traditional Italian ambiance with modern facilities, exceptional service and comfortable accommodations.

It is a short water taxi ride from Como and within easy walking distance to boutiques and trattorias. Its classic 19th-century Italian style takes you back to the golden age of travel when the hotel first opened. By special arrangement, your air-conditioned room will feature a lovely view of legendary Lake Como; it has a private bathroom, and is equipped with direct dial telephone, satellite television, minibar, hair dryer and ample closet space. The elegant Cenobio dining room serves northern Italian cuisine, and the lounge, coffee lounge and cocktail terrace bar provide ideal settings for conversation and refreshments. named after the powerful and influential Borromeo family. Visit the exquisitely preserved Isola Bella where Count Carlo Borromeo III commissioned architect Angelo Crivelli in 1632 to design and build a magnificent Baroque retreat dedicated to his wife, Isabella. Walk through Isola Bella's breathtaking gardens, where white peacocks stroll among the seasonal blaze of roses, gardenias, camellias, azaleas and rhododendrons. Tour the palazzo, filled with priceless masterpieces by such artists as Tiepolo and the sculptor Canova, and see the magnificent grotto, decorated with shells, pebbles and pink marble creating spectacular mosaics of marine life.

Stresa

An 18th- and 19th-century "grand tour" of Europe was considered incomplete without a visit to Stresa to experience its spectacular mountain views, tropical gardens and the resplendent glistening waters of Lake Maggiore. A young Ernest Hemingway, recuperating in Stresa during World War I, was inspired to make it the setting for Frederic Henry and Catherine Barkley's reunion in A Farewell to Arms.

Lugano, Switzerland

Nestled between the Alpine peaks of San Salvatore and Monte Brè, this historic lakeside town is the cultural center of Ticino, the only region in Switzerland where Italian is the official language. This optional, full-day excursion includes a funicular ride to the top of Monte Brè to visit the humble church of Santa Maria degli Angioli to see Bernardino Luini's amazing 16th-century fresco of the Passion of Christ. Enjoy a specially arranged visit to the private, 16th-century Villa Pizzo and its stunning gardens located on the shores of Lake Como.

The romantic allure of the Italian Lake District

Lombardy
Coat of Arms
1815-1866

For centuries, Italy's Lake District has seduced hearts, minds and souls; among them were Virgil, Napoleon, Byron, Stendhal, Dickens, Flaubert, Puccini, Toscanini and Hemingway.

But long before the Romans annexed the region some 2,000 years ago and began to build their well-ordered towns, it was settled by Etruscans and invaded by Celts. The mild climate and the beauty of snow-capped Alpine peaks descending to serene lake shores have continued to lure powerful empires here. Following the Romans, Middle Ages and Renaissance, nobility built magnificent holiday villas here, filled them with priceless art and laid out extraordinary gardens. European aristocrats of the 18th and 19th centuries considered the Italian Lake District an essential stop on their "grand tour" of Europe.

Lombardy became one of the richest and most economically developed areas of Italy, and Europe, thanks to its agricultural production, trade and banking activities that extended throughout Europe. "Lombard" was the name given to any merchant or banker coming from northern Italy. And to this day, the region remains of paramount importance to Italy.

From the deep-blue glacial lakes of Maggiore and Como to the bewitching Villa del Balbianello, from the medieval cobblestoned streets of Varenna to the modern sophistication of Milan, discover the exquisite gem that is the Italian Lake District.

The beautiful town of Stresa on Lake Maggiore has beckoned European aristocracy for centuries.

Nestled on the shores of Lake Como and surrounded by majestic Alpine peaks, the legendary Villa del Balbianello has one of the most beautiful and dramatic settings in all of Italy.
