DEAR CAROLINA ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Immerse yourself in southern culture and the compelling Civil War history that shaped our nation on this outstanding Mississippi River cruise. Join UNC's William R. Ferris and Marcie Cohen Ferris aboard the luxury riverboat American Queen, and sail to charming river towns steeped in classic antebellum grandeur and momentous history. From cobbled downtown districts and opulent mansions to haunting battle sites—step back into the 19th century on this remarkable voyage.

Begin with a stay in dynamic Memphis, as much a bustling riverboat port today as it was in the early 1800s, and take in Civil War history at the famed Shiloh National Military Park. Then board the grand American Queen, the largest riverboat in the world, and sail to fascinating ports in Mississippi and Louisiana. Head ashore in Vicksburg, where you'll find a rich southern heritage and the Vicksburg National Military Park, which commemorates the 47-day siege of the city in 1863. Continue to Natchez, a city of southern charm and antebellum mansions, followed by the lovely town of St. Francisville, home to almost 150 historic buildings on the National Register. Stop in Louisiana's vibrant capital, Baton Rouge, a modern metropolis bursting with Old Southern flavor, and visit Houmas House Plantation, the "Crown Jewel of Louisiana's River Road," before concluding your journey in New Orleans.

Delve into southern culture and the American Civil War, while gaining insight from lectures given by, in addition to Bill and Marcie Ferris, Gary W. Gallagher and Elizabeth R. Varon from the University of Virginia, Antonio D. Tillis from Dartmouth College, and David L. Carlton from Vanderbilt University.

This voyage offers the unique opportunity to cruise the 'Mighty Mississippi' while exploring one of the most pivotal times in America's history. Space is limited. We encourage you to make your reservation by October 30, 2013 to receive a two-night pre-cruise hotel stay in Memphis and a $100 onboard credit per stateroom.

Yours at Carolina,

AVAILABLE TO ALUMNI, THEIR FAMILIES AND FRIENDS.

Marcie Cohen Ferris is an associate professor in the Department of American Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she directs the Southern Studies concentration. Ferris's research and teaching interests include the American Jewish experience and the foodways and culture of the American South. From 2006-2008, Ferris served as president of the board of directors of the Southern Foodways Alliance. She has edited two special issues on food for UNC's Center for the Study of the American South's journal, Southern Cultures (winter 2009, summer 2012). Ferris's Matzoh Ball Gumbo: Culinary Tales of the Jewish South (UNC Press, 2005) was nominated for a 2006 James Beard Foundation Award. Ferris's current work, The Edible South: Food and History in an American Region, (forthcoming, UNC Press) examines the expressive power of food from the plantation South to the renaissance of local food economies in the contemporary South.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We strongly suggest purchasing travel insurance. Travel insurance information will be sent to you by the UNC General Alumni Association with your confirmation letter.

OPERATOR/PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT

Go Next, Inc. (hereinafter GN), located at 8000 West 78th Street, Suite 345, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55439-2538, in return for full payment by you of the amount specified, is responsible to arrange for the transportation, accommodations and other services specified as included in this brochure as and to the extent you have selected them, and subject to the following terms and conditions. Unless expressly specified as included by this brochure, services, taxes and fees are not included.

RESPONSIBILITY: GN is responsible to you for arranging all included transportation, accommodations and other services. However, in the absence of negligence on its part, GN and the sponsoring association are not responsible for personal injury, property damage, or any other loss, claim or damage arising out of or related to goods or services offered or included. GN and the sponsoring association are not responsible for personal injury, property damage or any other loss, claim or damage related to or arising out of, in whole or in part, the acts or omissions of any direct air carrier, cruise line, hotel, ground operator, or other person not its direct employee or not under its exclusive control supplying any services or providing any goods offered or included. GN and the sponsoring association are not responsible for personal injury, property damage or any other loss, claim or damage arising out of, either in whole or in part, acts of God, weather, labor strife, government actions, mechanical breakdowns, war-like acts, terroristic activities or other causes reasonably beyond the respective control of GN and the sponsoring association. GN and the sponsoring association are not responsible for incidental or consequential losses or damages.

Neither GN nor the American Queen Steamboat Company (hereinafter AQSC) nor the sponsoring association are responsible for any penalty, loss or inconvenience resulting from air or land arrangements made independently by travelers, including non-refundable conditions, restricted travel or frequent flyer tickets.

PAYMENT: A deposit in the amount shown on the reservation form and a signed agreement for each person is required to secure reservations. Final payment is due as shown on the reservation form. If the cruise or flight is fully booked, your payment will be returned or, with your authorization, your name placed on a waiting list. ALL CHECKS AND MONEY ORDERS ARE TO BE MADE PAYABLE AS INDICATED ON THE RESERVATION FORM. CONFIRMATION IS SUBJECT TO RECEIPT BY GN OF DEPOSIT AND A SIGNED AGREEMENT.

PRICES: GN RESERVES THE RIGHT TO INCREASE PRICES IN THE EVENT OF ANY INCREASED SECURITY OR FUEL RELATED SURCHARGES, OR FARE INCREASES IMPOSED BY THE AIRLINE OR CRUISE LINE THAT MAY BE IN PLACE AT THE TIME OF TICKETING OR TRAVEL, FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC TAX INCREASES, OR ADVERSE CURRENCY EXCHANGE FLUCTUATIONS, AFTER MARCH 01, 2013. GN RESERVES THE RIGHT, IF NECESSARY OR ADVISABLE, TO SUBSTITUTE HOTELS BUT IS NOT OBLIGED TO DO SO.

The price is based on tariffs in effect for estimated 2014 prices as of March 01, 2013. Prices increase every year, and it is therefore possible that increases could occur after the printing of this brochure and in advance of your departure.

BAGGAGE: GN CANNOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR LUGGAGE LOST OR DAMAGED. YOU SHOULD GIVE IMMEDIATE NOTICE OF ANY LOST OR DAMAGED LUGGAGE TO THE INVOLVED AIR CARRIER, HOTEL, CRUISE LINE AND TO YOUR OWN INSURANCE COMPANY.

AIRCRAFT AND CRUISE LINE BOARDING: GN CANNOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR AIRLINE OR CRUISE LINE DELAYS.

Aircraft and cruise line boarding privileges are limited to persons whose full payment and signed agreement have been received by GN and whose names are on the manifest given to the carrier before departure. Improper documentation, inadequate proof of identity, inadequate proof of age for children under 2, or any other reason may result in denial of boarding privileges. The air carrier and cruise line reserve the right to decline, accept or retain any person on the flight or cruise at any time within their sole discretion. If you are denied boarding privileges, you forfeit all monies paid and will be assessed any non-recoverable costs.

ADVANCE TRAVEL INFORMATION: U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. traveling exclusively inside U.S. borders do not need a passport or visa for travel. Homeland Security laws require that all guests travel with government-issued photo identification (ID) (such as a driver's license) at all times. ID must be presented at the time of boarding. Guests without proper ID will be denied boarding. AQSC is required to provide all guests' ID information including ID number, expiration date, and place of issue to the Coast Guard and/or other government entities prior to the vessel's departure. Guests must provide this information to AQSC in advance. Travel documents will not be released until received. Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada entering the U.S. are required to bring their passport. For other nationalities, passports are required to enter the U.S. It is your responsibility to check with your local U.S. embassy/consulate to confirm visa requirements and to obtain the proper visa/U.S. alien card (green card).

AQSC'S LAND PACKAGES/SHORE EXCURSIONS: Tours are operated in the various ports of call by AQSC or local tourist service companies contracted by the cruise line. They are not under the control of GN. Cancellation penalties may differ from the cruise program related penalties. AQSC may modify the included excursions as well as the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage.

NOTICES: Any complaints or claims against GN must be made in writing and received by GN within 90 days after scheduled termination of the trip. Any action or suit against GN must be commenced within 1 (one) year after scheduled termination of the trip or be forever barred.

The rights and remedies relating to cancellations and major changes prior to departure, made available under this agreement are in addition to any other rights or remedies available under applicable law. However, we offer any refunds under this agreement with the express understanding that the receipt of that refund by you waives all other remedies.

While Go Next makes every effort to adhere to the specifics shown in this brochure, all information contained herein is subject to change. Go Next is not responsible or liable for typographical errors, omissions or misprints.

INSURANCE: Travel insurance is available and can provide coverage for unforeseen circumstances that could disrupt your trip. See panel above for details.

IF YOU CHANGE PLANS OR CANCEL, YOUR RIGHTS TO A REFUND ARE LIMITED: The following charges will be assessed for cancellations.

If you cancel or change plans more than 100 days prior to departure, a full refund, less a $200 per person administrative fee plus any applicable pre- and/or post-cruise program cancellation fees, is provided. Any refunds are provided only in accordance with the following schedule. Any requests for cancellation must be communicated to GN in writing. Applicable refunds, if any, will be made within 14 days after the cancellation.

CANCELLATIONS: Upon receipt of written cancellation from you, the following fees will apply:

Cruise Program cancellations received 101 days or more prior to departure, $200 per person; 100-61 days prior to departure, 50% of total fare; 60-31 days prior to departure, 75% of total fare; 30-0 days prior to departure, 100% of total fare.

HEALTH: Any physical or mental condition requiring special medical attention or equipment must be disclosed in writing to GN at the time the participant makes a reservation. GN may reject the reservation of any person who, in the opinion of GN is unfit for travel or might be a danger to themselves or incompatible with others on the trip. Participants requiring special assistance, including without limitation those who permanently or periodically use a wheelchair, must be accompanied by someone who agrees to provide the required assistance. GN reserves the right to terminate the participation of any participant whose conduct or condition materially inconveniences other participants.

THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING MEDICAL EXCEPTIONS) TO THESE POLICIES. No refunds will be made for any portion of the arrangements we have made for you that are not actually utilized by you. There is no variance from these policies for the services we arrange as described in this brochure.

Houmas House Plantation

RIVER CRUISE

MAY 15 MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Your journey begins with a two-night stay at The Peabody Memphis hotel. Located in the heart of the city, the hotel offers easy access to many attractions.

MAY 16 MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Perched on a bluff overlooking the Mississippi, Memphis has been welcoming steamboats since before the Civil War. Today the city abounds with Americana, from legendary Beale Street to Elvis Presley's Graceland.

GO NEXT EXCLUSIVE EXCURSION Visit the renowned Shiloh National Military Park.

MAY 17 MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Enjoy a lecture given by acclaimed Civil War historian Gary W. Gallagher at The Peabody Memphis hotel. Embark on your river cruise aboard the grand American Queen in the afternoon.

MAY 18 RIVER CRUISING

MAY 19 VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI

Billed as the "Red Carpet City of the South," Vicksburg is a unique blend of old and new and displays its antebellum heritage with tremendous pride. The site of a dramatic siege that was a major turning point in the Civil War, Vicksburg is now a center of Southern hospitality with a vibrant downtown area.

INCLUDED EXCURSION The Vicksburg tour makes stops at The Church of the Holy Trinity; Pemberton's Headquarters, Confederate headquarters during the Siege of Vicksburg; the Old Court House Museum, which showcases artifacts from pre-Columbian times to Civil War implements; and the Washington Street shopping area, home to the Biedenharn Coca-Cola Museum.

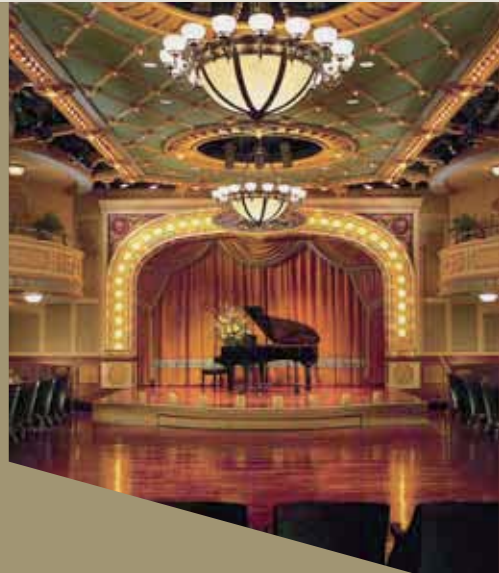

MAY 20 NATCHEZ, MISSISSIPPI

Step into the plantation lifestyle of the antebellum South in Natchez, one of the oldest European settlements in the lower Mississippi River Valley and the original capital of Mississippi. With a history shaped by Native Americans and those of French, African, British and Spanish descent, Natchez is a charming and authentic Southern town with a rich heritage.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Take in some historic Natchez mansions on a motor coach tour, which includes stops at the Natchez Visitors Center, Magnolia Hall, Rosalie Mansion, and the William Johnson House as well as a narrated tour of Stanton Hall, considered the grandest of the Natchez mansions.

LIFE ON THE WATER

Life on the American Queen is as unique and enriching as the riverboat tradition itself. Night after night, music fills the majestic two-deck tall Grand Saloon, a stunning replica of the famed Ford's Theatre. Showboat-style cabaret acts and old-fashioned radio shows add variety and charm to the evening lineup. By day, the Riverlorian, your onboard historian, offers lectures and river lore. The Ladies' Parlor and Gentlemen's Card Room are meeting points for new friends. And the calliope, a steam-powered organ, beckons anyone inclined to play.

Jackson Square, New Orleans

E ITINERARY

MAY 21 ST. FRANCISVILLE, LOUISIANA

With over 140 buildings and plantation homes on the National Register, this quaint town is a window to history. Here are the legacies of the Butlers, the Forts, the Barrows and the Turnbulls—families who helped build the South. Follow in the footsteps of the guests who stayed here, including Andrew Jackson and John James Audubon.

INCLUDED EXCURSION The hop-on, hop-off motor coach tour takes you to both historic and modern sites, including the West Feliciana Historical Society Museum, the Grace Episcopal Church and the Old Market Hall, where you can browse through art, jewelry and handmade items.

MAY 22 BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

Boasting a storied past and vibrant present, the capital city lives up to its motto, “Authentic Louisiana at every turn.” Baton Rouge is home to Magnolia Mound, one of the few surviving homes featuring French and West Indies architecture of early Louisiana.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Your city tour includes the USS Kidd and adjoining Veterans Memorial Museum, the historic Old Governor’s Mansion, the Capital Park Museum, the Old Arsenal Museum, the LSU Museum of Art in the new Shaw Center for the Arts, and St. Joseph’s Cathedral.

MAY 23 HOUMAS HOUSE, LOUISIANA

Beneath the shadows of ancient oak trees and among 38 acres of southern splendor is the Crown Jewel of Louisiana’s River Road, once the largest sugar plantation in America.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Take a walking tour of the magnificent Houmas House Plantation and its outstanding gardens.

MAY 24 NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

Disembark in the morning and bid farewell to the American Queen.

Note: If you are interested in an optional Premium Choice Tour of New Orleans, your return flight should be scheduled to depart after 2:00 p.m.

Premium Choice Tours will also be offered in each port of call for an additional charge. Itinerary and shore excursions are subject to change.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

Creating plates inspired by culinary classics of America’s South and utilizing the best of the season’s offerings from stops along the way, award-winning chef Regina Charboneau lends her expertise and Southern hospitality to the unique dining experience on the American Queen. Grab a simple snack at the River Grill, indulge in the elegance of the J.M. White Dining Room, or satisfy your appetite any hour of the day at the Front Porch Café as you sample Charboneau’s delectable creations, from Pork Loin stuffed with Andouille Sausage to Corn Fritters and Bourbon Pecan Pie.

GUEST LECTURERS

Gary W. Gallagher is the John L. Nau III Professor in the History of the American Civil War at U.Va. A nationally recognized expert on the Civil War and beloved undergraduate teacher, Gallagher graduated from Adams State College of Colorado and earned his M.A. and Ph.D. in history from The University of Texas-Austin. He was previously a professor at Penn State University. Active in historic preservation, Professor Gallagher has worked with the Civil War Trust and was founder and first president of the Association for the Preservation of Civil War Sites. He has acclaimed courses widely available through The Teaching Company and is the author of several books including The Confederate War and Lee and His Generals in War and Memory.

Professor Gallagher, one of the leading historians of the Civil War, will give a presentation at The Peabody Memphis hotel on May 17, 2014. Professor Gallagher will not be lecturing on board the American Queen.

DAVID L. CARLTON

David L. Carlton, Associate Professor, has been at Vanderbilt since 1983. A specialist in the history of the southern economy, he is the author of Mill and Town in South Carolina, 1880-1920 (Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1982). Mill and Town finds the indigenous roots of industrialization in the economic revolution in the South resulting from the Civil War and Emancipation and the resulting expansion of a dynamic, town-dwelling middle class, and explores the tense relationship between these “town people” and the white working class recruited to work in the new mills. He has also co-authored, with Peter A. Coclanis, The South, the Nation, and the World: Essays in Southern Economic Development (Charlottesville: University of Virginia Press, 1984) and Confronting Southern Poverty and the Great Depression (Boston: Bedford/St., Martins, 1996). At Vanderbilt, he teaches the U.S. History survey (and has edited a documentary reader for the survey), the History of the American South, the History of American Enterprise, and the History of Appalachia.

WILLIAM R. FERRIS

William R. Ferris is the Joel R. Williamson Eminent Professor of History and the Sr. Assoc. Director of UNC’s Center for the Study of the American South. Ferris is an internationally recognized leader in Southern studies, African American music, and folklore who has written or edited 10 books and created 15 documentary films, including the monumental Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, which was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize. Other titles include My Poor Heart Ease: Voices of the Mississippi Blues and, most recently, The Storied South: Voices of Writers and Artists. Ferris’ many prestigious honors include the Charles Frankel Prize in the Humanities, the American Library Association’s Dartmouth Medal, the Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters Lifetime Achievement Award, and the W.C. Handy Blues Award.

ANTONIO D. TILLIS

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, with roots in the Mississippi Delta and Gulf Coast areas, Professor Antonio Tillis is Associate Professor and Chair of the African and African American Studies Program at Dartmouth College. He is a specialist in Latin American, Afro-Latin American and African Diaspora literatures. His subspecialties include Black transnational migration in the Americas and in the Caribbean basin from slavery to contemporary times and U.S. Afro-Latino studies. His research and teaching interests include Latin American literature, U.S. Latino literature, comparative African-American and Afro-Latin American culture, Black Diaspora studies, film studies and contemporary theory. Professor Tillis’ current project focuses on the literary treatment of U.S. Afro-Latino populations.

ELIZABETH R. VARON

Elizabeth R. Varon is Langbourne M. Williams Professor of American History at U.Va. A Virginia native and specialist in the Civil War era and 19th-century South, she received her M.A. from Swarthmore College and Ph.D. from Yale University and has taught at Wellesley College and Temple University. Her books include Southern Lady, Yankee Spy: The True Story of Elizabeth Van Lew, A Union Agent in the Heart of the Confederacy; Disunion!: The Coming of the American Civil War, 1789-1859; and Appomattox: Victory, Defeat and Freedom at the End of the Civil War. Varon’s public presentations include book talks at the Lincoln Bicentennial in Springfield; on C-Span’s Book TV; at Gettysburg’s Civil War Institute and a featured speaker in the Organization of American Historians’ Distinguished Lectureship program.
