DEAR CAROLINA ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Immerse yourself in Southern culture and the compelling Civil War history that shaped our nation on this outstanding Mississippi River cruise. Board the luxury riverboat American Queen, and sail to charming river towns steeped in timeless antebellum grandeur and momentous history. From cobbled downtown districts and stately mansions to haunting battle sites, step back into the 19th century on this remarkable voyage.

Begin with a stay in dynamic Memphis, as much a bustling riverboat port today as it was in the early 1800s, and encounter fascinating Civil War relics at the famed Shiloh National Military Park, one of the most secluded and best-preserved battlefields in the United States. Then board the grand American Queen, the largest riverboat in the world, and sail to quintessential ports in Mississippi and Louisiana. Visit the delightful antique shops and intriguing museums of Vicksburg, dubbed the “Red Carpet City of the South,” or step back in time at the renowned Vicksburg National Military Park. Continue to the oldest settlement on the Mississippi, Natchez, graced with stunning gardens and palatial antebellum mansions. Admire a variety of historic landmarks, such as the Gothic-style Grace Episcopal Church, in the lovely town of St. Francisville, and see the Georgian-style Old Governor’s Mansion, nicknamed “Louisiana’s White House,” in Baton Rouge. Experience more architectural splendor along Plantation Road, before concluding your unforgettable odyssey in New Orleans.

Delve into Southern culture and the American Civil War, while gaining insight from lectures given by Dr. Patrick L. Hatcher, enrichment lecturer for Cal Discoveries Travel, who previously taught in the History and Political Science departments at the University of California, Berkeley; Bernie Herman, the George B. Tindall Professor and Chair of American Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; and Thomas Wortham, Professor Emeritus of American Literature and Culture and former chair of the Department of English at UCLA.

We sold out this tour very quickly last spring and it received excellent reviews from our alumni and friends. Space is limited, so be sure to reserve your spot by November 19, 2014 to receive a two-night pre-cruise hotel stay in Memphis and a $100 onboard credit per stateroom.

Yours at Carolina,
