Ancient Greece and Turkey

Cruising aboard the Exclusively Chartered Small Ship Five-Star M.S. Le Lyrial

September 28 to October 6, 2015

The University of North Carolina General Alumni Association
Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends:

Over 3000 years ago, the Mycenaeans founded one of the earliest great civilizations of the world on the archipelago stretching from Greece to Turkey across Homer’s “wine dark” Aegean Sea. This exclusive and comprehensive itinerary cruises these waters into the very cradle of Western civilization and the classical world to the coastal jewels of Greece and Turkey.

Join fellow Tar Heels and friends for this spectacular cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star M.S. LE LYRIAL, launching in 2015, a new generation of small ship design and technology featuring only 110 Suites and Staterooms. Dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels while enjoying the advantages of Five-Star, small ship cruising—elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary carefully crafted with daily excursions led by experienced local guides and no waiting in long lines.

Call on Delos, Mykonos, Santorini, Pátmos and medieval Rhodes—islands steeped in both myth and history—and sail Turkey’s sun-drenched coast to visit Ephesus, the most spectacularly preserved Greco-Roman city in the world, where a specially arranged tour of the awe-inspiring, Roman-era Terrace Houses awaits, and the legendary site of Troy, immortalized by Homer in The Iliad. Enjoy guided tours in these storied destinations as well as free time to encounter their mysteries and delights at your own pace at the best time of the year. Learn more about contemporary island life during the exclusive ISLAND LIFE FORUM®, where you will meet local residents. There are also opportunities to visit eight UNESCO World Heritage sites on this once-in-a-lifetime journey.

Historian Eleni Zachariou will share her extensive knowledge of the islands, peoples, art and cultures of Greece and Turkey, along with other guest speakers who will provide lectures throughout the cruise.

ISLAND LIFE® ANCIENT GREECE AND TURKEY is a popular, all-encompassing travel program and an excellent value—all accommodations, meals, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and one excursion each day are included, and you need to unpack only once! It is no surprise that this highly successful program sells out quickly year after year, so we encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are available.

Yours at Carolina,

ANCIENT GREECE and TURKEY

Experience firsthand the true character and traditions of Greece and Turkey and discover the influence of prehistoric, Greco-Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Ottoman civilizations along the Aegean shoreline during this comprehensive voyage to windswept ancient islands, idyllic chora (countryside) and fabled coasts. Enjoy an enriching travel experience like no other aboard the Five-Star, small ship M.S. LE LYRIAL, featuring an included, specially designed shore excursion each day, Five-Star accommodations and all meals. Interact with local people; explore the ancient history, culture, architecture, art, language and cuisine; and unpack just once! This popular program is an intimate travel experience at just the right pace and during the best time of year, when the weather is delightful and the sites are less crowded.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS are custom-designed and specially arranged for this exclusive itinerary:

◆ Immerse yourself in a carefully planned, balanced itinerary of included guided historical and cultural excursions and time on your own to discover and observe the heart and soul of Greek and Turkish island and coastal life.

◆ Evoke the daily lives of ancient peoples as you walk through the ruins of Akrotiri, a Minoan city frozen in time more than three and a half millennia ago by a volcanic eruption, and the rarely visited Terrace Houses, the multichambered residences of first-century Ephesus’ most privileged citizens.

◆ Hear it from the Experts! Guest speaker Eleni Zachariou, study leaders and experienced, English-speaking local guides will accompany you throughout the program and discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Greek and Turkish topics.

◆ Engage with local Patmiants and Aeginetans, residents of Pátmos and Aegina, during the ISLAND LIFE FORUM® where they share their candid perspectives of life today on these ancient islands.

◆ Enjoy a private performance of traditional Greek music and dancing.

◆ Taste authentic Turkish dessert during a baklava cooking demonstration by the ship’s pastry chef.

◆ Learn key phrases and pronunciation of the Greek and Turkish languages to make your interactions with local residents all the more enjoyable.

◆ Enjoy time on your own—stroll the medieval fortress town of Rhodes, explore the pristine beauty of Pátmos and enjoy a spectacular sunset sipping ouzo harbor-side in Mykonos’ Little Venice.

ELENI ZACHARIOU

A native of Greece and more than 25-year veteran study leader of Greece and Turkey, Eleni Zachariou is fluent in five languages, has an M.A. in Classical Art and Archaeology from the University of La Verne and has completed graduate work in Byzantine and Biblical studies. She will share her extensive knowledge of the islands, peoples, art and cultures of Greece and Turkey throughout the program.

Scheduled guest speaker may be altered due to circumstances beyond our control. See Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.

The archaeological ruins of the Acropolis of Lindos bear the marks of the Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman civilizations that thrived on the island of Rhodes. Inset above: The incomparable Parthenon on the Acropolis of Athens.

Athens, Greece

Birthplace of democracy and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets from Socrates to Herodotus, Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization. Today, the ancient city’s enduring grandeur is encapsulated in the spectacular Acropolis, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the gracefully proportioned Parthenon, a perfect example of Doric architecture dedicated to the goddess Athena in 438 B.C.

Delos

The mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, Delos is today a UNESCO World Heritage site. It is considered to be one of the most sacred islands in the Greek world, as central to Grecian spiritual life as Olympia and Delphi. The Sanctuary of Apollo is a spectacularly rich archaeological site with remains of three separate temples from the fifth and sixth centuries B.C. Delos’ awe-inspiring ruins also showcase an entire district of Hellenistic and Roman-era houses and the 5500-seat Theater (300 B.C.), the site of choral competitions during the quadrennial Delian festival.

See the magnificent Terrace of the Lions, where legendary statues carved from Náxian marble have guarded the island for nearly 2600 years.

Mykonos

According to ancient legend, the craggy hills and clefts of Mykonos were formed from the petrified bodies of giants defeated by Hercules. Mykonos’ iconic windmills, sugar-white, cube-shaped houses and azure bays epitomize the spectacular beauty of the Greek Isles. The Little Venice neighborhood resembles, in design, Italy’s famed canal city. Enjoy free time to stroll the whitewashed streets or stop in an ouzeri to nibble mezethes and sip ouzo, the quintessentially Greek aperitif.

Santorini (Akrotiri)

Be on deck as the ship cruises into the spectacular harbor at Santorini, a naturally created caldera, beneath which is believed... to be the legendary lost city of Atlantis. A cable car descends to sea level from the elevated town of Fira, whose stunning white-walled buildings stand in stark contrast against the dark volcanic cliffs.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Tour the phenomenal Bronze-age ruins of Akrotiri, recently reopened to visitors. Held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3500 years, Akrotiri’s streets reveal the architectural sophistication and advanced culture of its Minoan inhabitants.

EST. BOY! CULINARY TRADITIONS OPTION: By special arrangement, savor distinctive island dishes presented by a local chef and paired with native Santorini wines in Fira.

Rhodes

The island of Rhodes has been one of the most prosperous and strategic strongholds in the eastern Mediterranean since the Neolithic period. Dock at the fortified wall of Rhodes Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and step into this extraordinarily well-preserved medieval city, built over a great Hellenistic metropolis. A major Christian outpost during the Crusades, it is the site where the Knights of St. John erected the splendid 14th-century Palace of the Grand Masters. OPTIONAL EXCURSION: Walk through the ancient village of Lindos to see the magnificent frescoes on the Byzantine church and the breathtaking views from its clifftop acropolis.

Pátmos

The small island of Pátmos and its Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, a UNESCO World Heritage site, loom large in the history of Christianity. Built in 1088, the monastery is still inhabited by monks who continue to preserve it as a pilgrimage site and place of religious study. St. John the Apostle of Ephesus very possibly wrote the Book of Revelation here in A.D. 95. CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS: Meet residents of Pátmos and Aegina who will discuss contemporary daily life on these ancient Greek islands during the specially arranged ISLAND LIFE FORUM®. Later, enjoy a performance of traditional Greek music and dance on board the ship.

Ephesus, Turkey

The Greco-Roman city of Ephesus is one of the world’s most dazzling architectural treasures, offering an enthralling glimpse into ancient coastal life. The beautifully restored façade of the Library of Celsus is breathtaking, and the Marble Way leads to an impressive 24,000-seat amphitheater where St. Paul delivered his Epistle to the Ephesians. According to legend, St. John the Apostle traveled with Mary, the mother of Jesus, to Ephesus, where he wrote his Gospel and later died and was buried. CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: By special arrangement, visit the Terrace Houses, where the wealthiest and most prominent families of first-century Ephesus lived, and admire the monumental arched colonnades, well-preserved mosaics and brightly colored frescoes of these superbly crafted residences, rarely seen by today’s visitors to Ephesus.

Troy

Located on a windswept plain near Çanakkale, Troy was immortalized by Homer’s 13th-century B.C. Trojan War epic, The Iliad, and inspired the tales of ancient Greek mythology at the core of Western literature. Designated a UNESCO World Heritage site, remnants of the Bronze Age citadel and nine cities built over a span of millennia stand on the very site where Troy fell.

Istanbul

This legendary metropolis straddling the Bosphorus Strait is the only city in the world that naturally bridges two continents: Europe and Asia. Its historic treasures are designated a UNESCO World Heritage site and include the magnificent Hagia Sophia, Topkapi Palace and the Blue Mosque.

Istanbul’s Byzantine Hagia Sophia was built in a remarkably short six years by Emperor Justinian I. The monumental Library of Celsus, Ephesus, was a repository for more than 12,000 scrolls 1800 years ago.
