CAPE TOWN

Johannesburg

Day Three

This morning, awake to the scenery of the Cape Peninsula. Early this evening, arrive at Matjiesfontein, a Victorian settlement perched behind the mountains and the verdant vineyards of the Cape Winelands. Your train leaves Cape Town for Pretoria. Leave the city center, the "Nellie" combines impeccably appointed. The late Victorian and Edwardian décor charmed celebrities, statesmen and other travelers for more than a century. A short stroll from the settlement, "The Smoke That Hath Power." From there, a short train journey brings you to the Victoria Falls Hotel, "The Place of Thundering Water." The phrase, The Big Five, was coined by hunters of Africa's interior. Early this evening, arrive at Matjiesfontein, also known as the "Jubilee," after the 1866 discovery of a diamond on a farm near Hopetown set off South Africa's diamond rush.

“Relax in an atmosphere which is so serene, we can almost mistake it for heaven’s own tranquility.” - Ralph Waldo Emerson

The Safari Experience

In Southern Africa, the best savanna is found in the African bushveld. Stretching from the extreme north to the southernmost reaches of the continent, the African bushveld is a land of contrasts. It is characterized by a dry, semi-arid climate and a diverse range of vegetation. The region is home to a wide variety of wildlife, including wildebeest, zebra, lions, and leopards. The African bushveld is also known for its beautiful landscapes, including rocky outcrops, riverine vegetation, and sand dunes.

Before you arrive in Cape Town, you’ll have collected many photographs and tally your Big Five sightings. By day’s end, return to the lodge for a relaxing evening. After a dinner of delicious international and local cuisine, you’ll have the opportunity to take a dip in the pool or treat yourself to a massage.

In the not-so-distant past, a Safari was a grand adventure. Admire the world-famous diamond mine. Each morning, take in the scenic splendor of the surroundings. For both locals and travelers alike. WiFi is available for your convenience.

From President to President

In his autobiography, "The Smiths," Nelson Mandela wrote, "I have come to this place as a president of a new South Africa. I have come to this place as a president of the people. I have come to this place to serve you, the people of South Africa."

CAPE TOWN

Surrounded by a historic, cultural and natural backdrop, the city of Cape Town is one of the world’s most beautiful urban environments, complete with Table Mountain and Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden, the country’s oldest and most diverse botanical gardens. A historic city steeped in history and culture, Cape Town is a melting pot of cultures and a great destination for curious travelers. This tour offers an unforgettable experience. From the spectacular Table Mountain to the vibrant streets of Bo-Kaap, the city has it all! "Cape Town is a place to visit, but Soweto is a place to live." ~ Nelson Mandela

ROBBEN ISLAND

Within sight of Cape Town, but effectively a world apart, lies Robben Island, where South Africa’s most famous political prisoner spent 12 years. Germany occupied the island and used it as a prison during World War II. Since then, the island has become a place of pilgrimage and a symbol of the struggle against apartheid. Today, the prison and its history are protected as a national monument. "Robben Island is not a place that you go to. It is a place that goes to you." ~ Nelson Mandela

CAPE PENINSULA

In the Cape Peninsula, you will find some of South Africa’s most beautiful natural landscapes. This coastal area is home to the Cape Floral Region, one of the world’s richest and most diverse flora regions. It is also home to the Cape Gannet, one of the world’s largest bird colonies. From the Cape of Good Hope to the Cape Point, this region offers stunning views and a chance to experience the beauty of the natural world.

SOWETO

Soweto, situated on the eastern outskirts of Pretoria, is one of South Africa’s most vibrant and colorful urban areas. It is a place where different cultures and ethnic groups have lived side by side for generations. Today, Soweto is a place of pilgrimage for those interested in South Africa’s history and culture. The township is home to the famous Orlando Stadium, where Nelson Mandela delivered his first speech after being released from prison. Today, the stadium is a symbol of the struggle against apartheid and a place where people from all walks of life come together.

ROVOS RAIL

A journey on Rovos Rail is a journey through South Africa’s history and culture. The train offers a unique perspective on the country, from the vistas of the Cape to the beauty of the plains. The train journey takes you through some of the country’s most scenic landscapes, and you can enjoy the views from the comfort of your private suite. The train is a luxury experience, with world-class service and delicious meals. It is a journey that you will never forget.
