FLAMENCO

The DANCE OF SOUTHERN SPAIN

In the Southeast of Spain, the art of flamenco, considered one of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO, is central to the life of the region. Flamenco is a blend of different art forms, each of which has its own roots and traditions. Flamenco is a powerful expression of the culture and experiences of the people who created it. The music, dance, and passion of flamenco are deeply rooted in the history and traditions of the region.

Day Eight b | l | D

JEREZ DE LA FONTERA
Educational Focus: Jerez de la Frontera

Today, enjoy a guided visit to Jerez de la Frontera. Take a tour of the famous Bodegas Gonzalez Byass, the oldest and largest sherry company in the world. Learn about the traditional methods used to produce sherry, as well as the different types of sherry that are produced in the region. The tour concludes with a tasting of various sherry styles.

Day Seven b | l | D

SEVILLE
Educational Focus: Andalusia and its Melting Pots

In the heart of central Andalusia, Seville is the capital of the Spanish culture and is considered the cultural capital of Spain. Seville is known for its rich history, architecture, and traditional culture. The city is home to several important cultural institutions, including the Real Alcázar, the Cathedral of Seville, and the Plaza de España.

Day Six b

MÁLAGA
Educational Focus: Andalusia

In the city of Málaga, the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, experience a day of cultural and historical exploration. Visit the Picasso Museum, which features the largest collection of Picasso's works outside of Spain. The museum's exhibits showcase the artist's work from his early years to his final years, highlighting the development of his style and the evolution of his techniques.

All excursions:
- Explore the city of Seville, the cultural heart of Spain.
- Visit the Alcázar, a fortress and palace built by the Moors and later extended by the kings of Castile.
- Take a guided tour of the Cathedral of Seville, the largest Gothic cathedral in the world.
- Enjoy a traditional Andalusian tapas lunch at a local restaurant.
- Watch a flamenco performance.

Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

Join fellow Tar Heels and friends on an exciting journey to Ronda in the heart of Andalucía. Many of the things that make gastronomically Spain—flavors and colors, for example—stem from this area. Ronda is one of architecture and nature, such as the Alhambra in Granada and Seville’s Cathedral. Since Ronda was part of the Golden Age, it’s not surprising that it hosts at least four universities and their students at the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art. You are at the foot of many southern Spain travel experts have meticulously planned this exciting program. Enjoy preferential access to popular attractions and an exclusive educational program that will deepen your appreciation of the people and the culture. This educational program features expert local speakers and is the hallmark of our Alumni Campus Abroad programs.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel opportunities for independent exploration. You will enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during your free time, lost the thrill of making your own travel decisions.

Space is limited on this amazing journey. Be sure to make your reservations today.

Yours in Carolina,

Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

Join us as we embark on an exciting journey to Ronda in the heart of Andalucía. Many of the things that are quintessentially Spanish — history and glory, for example — don’t begin here. In fact, this area was once at the center of the high society and culture of the Spanish Empire. It was also the heart of the Inquisition and the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art. It was here that the last Moorish King, IV, surrendered to the Christian King to end the reign of the Moors in Spain. Ronda’s past of both辉煌 and tragedy is reflected in its present-day beauty.

Our personal air program allows you to select your flights, dates of travel and dates of travel in consultation with one of our experienced Passenger Service Representatives. Actions vary, depending on airline, time of day and class of service. In most cases, transfers between the airport and hotel or ship will be included. On arrival and departure days, your Passenger Service Representative will provide you with all the details you need to guarantee your flights. Book your air as soon as possible to secure a seat in your preferred travel class. AHI FlexAir plans and FlexAir packages automatically review flight status every week. You will be charged the higher price if your flight is not confirmed on the date your request is received. AHI FlexAir experts automatically review your travel status to help you avoid any unnecessary inconvenience.

After departure, if the reservations are changed, the price may be changed. If connecting flights are requested, special promotional fares may be available. You will be charged the higher price if your flight is not confirmed on the date your request is received. AHI FlexAir experts automatically review your travel status to help you avoid any unnecessary inconvenience.
