The Light on the Hill Society Scholarship serves as a tribute to Carolina's earliest African-American graduates. It is a vehicle for alumni and friends to support African-American first-year students who exhibit academic excellence, outstanding leadership abilities, the potential to contribute to the community during their time at Carolina and to become actively involved and informed alumni. The scholarship is administered by the Light on the Hill Society board of directors and is supported by the UNC General Alumni Association.

While the scholarship has made tremendous gains over the last few years, your continued support is needed to ensure the perpetuity of the fund. By making annual gifts, you can share your success with Carolina's future African-American students. Make a gift today, see page 17.

Visit alumni.unc.edu/loth for more information or contact Tanea Pettis '95 at loth@unc.edu or (919) 843-9694.

Welcome

Greetings fellow Tar Heels!

It is indeed my pleasure to serve as your 2014 BAR chair and to represent the class of ’84 as we celebrate our 30th class reunion. I gladly accepted this role with a readiness to serve and to help ensure you have an amazing Homecoming experience.

This weekend we will gather to network, fellowship and cultivate new friendships, while reconnecting with established ones. From hospitality events to the golf tournament to the football game, our weekend celebration will be one of exceptional enrichment and networking opportunities.

After you enjoy the day’s events, get ready to dance, party and party some more – we host the only official UNC Homecoming parties. Of course the weekend would not be complete without our soul stirring inspirational service on Sunday. This weekend will be special and full of memories to relive for years to come.

Congratulations to Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and classes from the 1980s on winning this year’s Greek and Class Decade Challenge! These initiatives challenged members of Greek-letter organizations and classes by the decade to make tax-deductible gifts in honor of their sorority, fraternity and or class. In addition to helping the planning committee maintain reasonable reunion event prices, the challenge gifts will allow BAR to make donations to the Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History, (on behalf of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.), the Interfaith Council SECU Community House and UNC MLK celebration activities.

The planning committee and I are committed to providing a memorable weekend for your enjoyment and pleasure. Welcome back to Carolina where you know you belong!

Hark the Sound & Go Heels!

Game Day Information

Black Alumni Reunion Shuttle Information for Saturday, Nov. 15, 2014

The BAR shuttle will run from the Sheraton Chapel Hill and the American Legion to campus. Shuttle service will run continuously throughout the tailgate party and the football game. The shuttle will pick up from the Sheraton Chapel Hill for guests of the hotel. Only hotel guests will be able to park at the hotel during the football game. Hotel guests will receive a parking pass when they check in.

For all others, parking will be available at the American Legion (at no additional cost). The shuttle will also pick up from this location. The American Legion is located about a quarter of a mile behind the Sheraton Chapel Hill. Take Europa Drive past the Sheraton Chapel Hill. When you come to the stop sign, you will see the American Legion across the street, slightly to your right (1714 Legion Road, Chapel Hill, NC 27517). The BAR shuttle will run for approximately one hour (60 minutes) after the end of the football game.

Game Day Parking Options

There is no game-day parking on or near Kenan Stadium. Below are parking options:

Tar Heel Express (Roundtrip $5, One-way $3)
- On home football days, Chapel Hill Transit operates special shuttles from park and ride lots located throughout Chapel Hill and Carrboro. All game day Tar Heel Express buses drop-off and pick-up on campus along South Road in front of Carmichael Areana and Woolen Gym. Public Parking on campus is limited. Park and Ride locations Include:
- Jones Ferry Road near University Lake
- Friday Center Park and Ride off NC 54
- University Mall next to Dillard’s
- Southern Village off US 15 and US 501

Service from the NC Highway 54 Friday Center Park & Ride Lot next to the Friday Center, and from the parking lot next to Dillard’s at University Mall, begins 3 hours prior to game time so that fans may enjoy the festivities at Tar Heel Town, which typically is open to the public beginning 2.5 hours prior to game time until 1 hour prior to game time.

The Friday Center and Dillard’s Lot Tar Heel Express buses drop-off and pick-up on campus along South Road in front of Woolen Gym (near the stadium). Service begins 1.5 hours before game time from Jones Ferry Road off NC 54 West in Carrboro and the Southern Village Park & Ride lot located on 15-501 south of town. Tar Heel Express buses from these locations will drop-off and pick-up at South Road on the UNC campus.

Return trips from South Road begin immediately after the game and continue for approximately 45 minutes (more or less depending on the crowd at the shuttle stop).

General Public Parking for Football ($10)
- Cameron-Graham Lot has approximately 100 spaces (across from UNC’s Cogeneration Plant and 1 block from Crooks Corner and 2 blocks from the Carolina Inn).
- South Chiller Lot has approximately 35-40 spaces (across from the Dogwood Deck off Mason Farm Road and Columbia Street)
- PD- Cardinal Deck (approximately 1,400 spaces)
- Manning Lot (approximately 300 spaces – 200 Reserved for Rams Club this season)
- Jackson Deck next to Dogwood Deck (500 spaces)
- RV parking will be available at the Friday Center Park and Ride Lot off of NC Highway 54 Lot. Travel to campus is available via the Tar Heel Express, which services this lot.

Induction into any honorary society indicates that an individual has attained a high degree of accomplishment. It is with a debt of gratitude, admiration and love that the 2013 Black Alumni Reunion Planning Committee inducts these members of the class of 1963 into the Golden Rams Society.

Created in 2007, this honorary society was established to honor African-American alumni celebrating their 50th class anniversary. We stand in awe of each of our Golden Rams for their courage, imagination and resolve to enter an unfamiliar world, compete and excel during the earliest years of integration at Carolina.

It is because of their patience, strength and commitment to academic excellence that we are all members of the Carolina family. On behalf of Carolina’s more than 20,000 African-American alumni, the Black Alumni Reunion congratulates the newest members of the Golden Rams Society:

As vice chancellor he leads a large, complex organization of more than 450 full-time and contract employees plus approximately 1,500 student workers and manages a multi-million dollar annual budget. He serves on the executive committee of the University and the Chancellor’s Cabinet in addition to representing the University to the Board of Trustees, Board of Governors, President’s Office and state and local officials.

His office serves the University of North Carolina in collaboration with academic programs by providing transformational opportunities for students in the areas of student life, health and wellness, leadership and service and diversity and inclusion. His office provides leadership, oversight and vision by cultivating and leveraging partnerships with faculty, staff, families and local, state, national and global organizations.
Light on the Hill Society Scholarship

The Light on the Hill Society Scholarship effort began during the 2005 Black Alumni Reunion. Organizers challenged alumni to initially contribute $1,952 each – representing the 1952 class year of Harvey E. Beech, UNC’s first black graduate – to become founding members of the scholarship fund.

Since 2005, Carolina alumni and friends have annually made tax-deductible gifts to the fund, ranging from a few dollars to several thousand, and the largest being a $250,000 gift from NFL star Julius Peppers ’02 on Aug. 18, 2012. This was the second major gift received from Peppers. In 2009, he made his first gift of $100,000 to the scholarship fund which created the Light on the Hill Society Peppers scholarship.

The Light on the Hill Society Scholarship serves as a tribute to Carolina’s earliest African-American graduates and as a vehicle for alumni and friends to support African-American first-year students who exhibit academic excellence and the potential to contribute while at Carolina and after graduation. The scholarship is administered by the Light on the Hill Society Board of Directors and supported by the UNC General Alumni Association. To date, the program has awarded 38 scholarships: 30 Light on the Hill Society Scholars and eight Julius Peppers scholars.

Black Alumni Reunion History

The first African-American student enrolled at UNC in 1951. Since then, many African-Americans have matriculated and graduated from UNC. In 1980, because of a desire to reunite UNC’s black alumni, Angela Bryant ’73 and the late Richard Epps ’73 organized the first Black Alumni Reunion (BAR). Approximately 65 people participated in the inaugural reunion, supported by the General Alumni Association.

Unaware that there was an “official” black alumni reunion, Johnnie “Tick Moss” Southerland ’81 organized an informal, single night reunion party. Most of the alumni who participated had graduated in the late ’70 and early ’80. Southerland’s efforts continued, drawing more alumni each year. The parties were held in apartment complex clubhouses in Chapel Hill, with funds provided by donations taken at the door.

In early 1988, Southerland and Michael Moseley ’74 combined their resources and organized a committee to plan a formal black alumni reunion. Later in 1988, a group of about 60 black alumni convened for a strategic planning session to decide how to structure an improved BAR. As a result, the Black Alumni Reunion committee was created. The BAR mission is to bring together all black alumni for a weekend of fun, enrichment and fellowship. In 1989, BAR evolved from an informally structured event to a formal one. Efforts to reunite black alumni nationwide were launched, and the working relationship with the General Alumni Association was formed. The GAA began providing staff assistance, and once again, provided financial support.

1989 was also historical for other reasons. Harvey Elliott Beech ’52, the University’s first black graduate, and Karen Parker ’65, the first black female graduate, attended. Because of the rough and bitter experiences these and many other black alumni suffered, it required a special effort from them to attend a UNC reunion. Many black alumni who graduated in the “early years” had vowed never to return to UNC’s campus for any reason. However, after attending that 1989 reunion, the healing process began for some of them. Richard Epps ’73, the first black student body president; Rosalind Fuse-Hall ’81, the first black in Dialectic-Philanthropic Society, the oldest student organization on campus; and Sherrod Banks ’85 also attended the 1989 reunion. That year, the first Harvey Elliott Beech Distinguished Alumni Award was given. Beech was its recipient.

A year later, the BAR committee began awarding the Outstanding Faculty Award. Dr. Sonja H. Stone, for whom the UNC Center for Black Culture and History was named, was the first recipient. Also in 1990, a minority scholarship honoring Harvey Beech was established. Officials in the Office for Minority Affairs manage this award.

In 1989, BAR had an average of 194 participants and seemed to be growing. However, the 1991 reunion was canceled due to low registration.

The committee continued to enhance the reunion and in 1992 developed a career networking booklet, which contained information on various topics, including careers, mentoring and internships. In 1993, the book was made available to all juniors and seniors through a cooperative effort with the GAA.

In 1995, BAR encountered many firsts. Chancellor Michael Hooker ’69 spoke at the Sunday breakfast. The breakfast itself was a first in terms of the attendance, a record 125. Having both Harvey Beech and Edith Hubbard ’66 was definitely an added plus, and having more than 600 people participated in various reunion activities was a big first!

During BAR 1996, the reunion continued to expand, hosting more than 350 registered participants. The first annual Partner Lunch gave more than 25 students and alumni an opportunity to meet and share information about careers and personal experiences at UNC. The Sunday breakfast set a new record of 200 participants and a roundtable was added to the Friday afternoon agenda to discuss issues and concerns surrounding the Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History.

BAR 1997 reached an all-time high with more than 450 registered participants. Additional programs were added to the weekend. They included a first-ever golf tournament with nearly 40 participants as well as a Friday late night social with nearly 200 participants. BAR moved into full force with Dr. Trudier Harris’ enrichment program, sponsored by the GAA. The activities that year reached record participation across the board.

BAR 1998 once again broke the all-time high record, with more than 460 registered participants and also added a basketball game option to the weekend. We had the pleasure of having Benjamin Ruffin ’76 (MSW), then UNC System Board of Governors chair, as our breakfast speaker.

BAR 1999 exploded as the Sheraton Chapel Hill served as the host hotel. Participants were excited to actually stay in Chapel Hill. More than 730 registered participants attended the reunion, shuttle service between the game and hotel was provided, and the tailgate party moved to Tar Heel Town. Significant member discounts were given, and 70 alumni joined the GAA. Henry Frye ’59 (JD), then North Carolina Supreme Court chief justice, was the breakfast speaker.

BAR 2000 was unbelievable. From 1997 to 2000, the number of registered participants more than doubled with more than 1,000 participants, and the reunion became a not-to-be missed event. In addition to the annual enrichment program and Partner Lunch, the reunion enjoyed the benefit of collaboration with campus partners, including our newest collaboration with the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC). The Cultural Extravaganza made its leap from the Great Hall to Carmichael Auditorium with more than 2,000 participants for what was known as the Homecoming Extravaganza. The Vintage Time reception was one of the newest social additions. There was another increase in GAA membership among black alumni. The football block had more than 600 participants, and every seat at the awards brunch was filled. What a fantastic way to start a new millennium of BAR.

BAR 2001 continued to have strong presence and support. The reunion was once again successful with many traditional favorites and a couple of new happenings. The number of golfers who join us for the BAR outing grows each year. This reunion marked the 33rd anniversary of Project Uplift, and the Uplift Cultural Show was recreated. An additional event was added to the Friday night offerings — the Friday Late Night Hip-Hop Style. We took alumni behind the scenes to answer questions about admissions and started recruiting future Tar Heels with a new experience for kids – Tar Heel Kids Camp.

The 2002 BAR had an historic first: it hosted the first black-tie gala celebrating the achievements of African-Americans at the University. The event drew a diverse group of University leaders, including Chancellor James Moeser, state and local officials, and alumni from the ’50s to 2001. The celebration was even more special because it was a collaborative effort between the General Alumni Association, the Office of the Provost, the Office of Minority Affairs, the Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History, the Office for Student Academic Counseling, Campus Y and 17 alumni volunteers.

The highlight of the evening was the premier showing of the “UNC Pathfinders” video. Spearheaded by Archie Ervin ’99 (PhD) and the Office of Minority Affairs, this video gave a detailed account of African-Americans on campus — their struggles and accomplishments. From custodians to professors, from the first African-Americans admitted to the University to the first black student body president, from athletes to politicians, this video chronicled the struggles and triumphs of African-Americans at UNC. The images and information in the video were so powerful that the audience gave it a standing ovation.

BAR 2003 marked another exciting year. As anticipation built for the opening of the Sonja Hayes Stone Center for Black Culture and History, hard-hat tours of the building were offered during the weekend. The Stone Center was also highlighted in a short video during the awards dinner. A networking social was added, and an additional collaborative partner was secured for the annual Partner Lunch. Tar Heel Kids Camp more than doubled in size, with 50 kids attending during the weekend. Kids attending the Saturday night camp receive a special treat: Professor Chuck Stone stopped by to autograph and read his book, Squizzy the Black Squirrel.

For several years, alumni have dreamed and brainstormed about a scholarship program that would support the University in its mission to recruit and retain the nation’s best and brightest African-American students. During BAR 2004, the Light on the Hill Society Scholarship board of directors was created: Richard “Stick” Williams ’75 (Chair), Elbert Avery ’82, Rita Brackeen ’80, Terrence Burroughs ’82, Carl Carey ’00 (PhD), Roz Fuse-Hall ’80, Archie Ervin ’99 (PhD), Ernest Goodson ’76, Robyn Hadley ’85, Kelvin Harris ’82, Kraig Holt ’82, Randy Jones ’79, Pam Love ’83, Joy Paige ’85, Pam Parker ’90, Camille Z. Roddy ’87, Janet Southerland ’82 and ex officio members/GAA staff Tanea Pettis ’95 and Anita Walton ’92. The board developed a fundraising and marketing plan to inform alumni and friends about the creation of the scholarship. This effort was spearheaded by the research of Robyn Hadley ’85. BAR 2005 represented a milestone in the history of the reunion. We celebrated 25 years of dedication, commitment and accomplishments of BAR at Carolina. It was once said by Anatole France that “to accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe.”

Under the leadership of Dr. Janet H. Southerland ’82, BAR celebrated its 25th anniversary with a weeklong schedule of events for alumni, current students and teens from the community and across the state. Two special programs were created for the anniversary celebration: a program for African-American young men (ages 13-18) sponsored by Julius Peppers ’02 of the Carolina Panthers and an on-campus college visitation program with students from the NC GEARUP program. The Light on the Hill Society Scholarship also became a reality. In collaboration with the General Alumni Association, the Black Alumni Reunion planning committee established this scholarship to continue the rich legacy of African-American students at Carolina by...

BAR 2006 continued the tradition of reconnecting and reflecting with late night socials, a tailgate party, a 400-plus football game block and Tar Heel Kids Camp. In addition to those great traditions, the Light on the Hill Society Founding member campaign kicked off with great success. Alumni were asked to pledge $1,952 to become the initial donors of the Light on the Hill Society. Given a year to complete their pledge, nearly 100 alumni and friends supported this initiative. Chaired by Robyn S. Hadley ’85, the weekend was scaled back to its more traditional three-day celebration to focus on refining key events that alumni and their families had come to enjoy, plus shaping a plan to create the Light on the Hill Society Scholarship operational structure. With the addition of Camille Roddy ’87, a professional fundraiser and event planner to the committee, the reunion attracted substantial corporate support from Rolls Royce, Walmart, Jet Blue, GlaxoSmithKline, Pernod Ricard USA, Bank of America, Ernst & Young, Progress Energy, Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC and Southern Wine & Spirits.

The planning committee and the GAA lent their support to fundraising efforts with a goal of naming the first Light on the Hill Society Scholars during the 2007 reunion. During the banquet, Richard “Stick” Williams ’73 and Sam Perkins ’84 led the charge to alumni and friends to make gifts to the scholarship and conveyed the symbolic importance of the scholarship as one of many contributions African-American alumni were still making to the University and the state of North Carolina. Over a 12-month period, nearly 100 alumni and friends donated a minimum of $1,952 each to become founding members of the Light on the Hill Society. The scholarship also received a $10,000 gift from an anonymous donor.

Planning for BAR 2007 began immediately at the conclusion of the 2006. With a vision to build upon the reunion’s solid foundation and to take the take the reunion to a new level, the committee embraced the theme: Honoring Our Past, Strengthening our Presence, Cultivating our Future: Celebrating Who We Are. This resonated with the creation of two entities: the Black Pioneers and the BAR Golden Rams Society. Under the chairmanship of Karen Parker ’65, the first African-American female to receive a degree from Carolina, the Black Pioneers organized to represent African-American alumni between 1952 and 1970.

Wade Chestnut ’65 represented the Pioneers on the planning committee and oversaw the implementation of the Black Pioneer Dinner and hospitality during the greater BAR weekend. To commemorate this historic gathering, he also served as editor for the revised Yackety Yack (Legacy of Firsts), which documents stories written by these early graduates. As a few Pioneers were beginning to celebrate their 50th graduation anniversary, the planning committee established the BAR Golden Rams Society to permanently recognize and honor the academic and career achievements of all African-American Tar Heels. The first inductees to attend the inaugural ceremony were Romallus Murphy ’56, George Green ’57 and Dan Lanier ’57. Other alumni who graduated prior to ’56 were inducted posthumously. The ceremony took place during the Light on the Hill Society Scholarship Awards Banquet, when Katherine Demby ’11 and Allyson Diggins ’11 also became the first Light on the Hill Society Scholars.

To engage BAR participants in financially supporting the Light on the Hill Scholarship, a program was executed to implement milestone reunion giving. The classes of ’77, ’87 and ’97, celebrating their 10th, 20th and 30th reunions respectively, jointly hosted the Friday night Celebration of Classes. Finally, a Sunday morning worship service was added under the direction of Carolyn Malloy ’77 and Jackie Lucus ’77.

The financial success of BAR 2007 through corporate sponsorships allowed more programming and record-breaking attendance for a third consecutive year. With a planning committee of nearly 40 graduates spanning five decades of alumni, the BAR committee consisted of 16 committees that executed more than 18 events in two days. BAR 2007 will forever be remembered as a pivotal moment of growth and development that united the entire BAR family with activity offering something for all African-American Tar Heels.

BAR 2008 continued to see record numbers under the leadership of Walter L. Faison Jr. ’82. Approximately 1,400 alumni and friends returned to Chapel Hill and participated in at least one BAR event. Those in attendance were able to rekindle old acquaintances, visit Franklin Street, the Old Well, the Bell Tower and take in a basketball and football game. One of the goals of this year’s committee was to increase student involvement throughout the BAR weekend. The committee met that goal and expectations were truly exceeded! Four outstanding first-year students were honored as our 2008 LOTH scholars: Christa Carter ’12, Jaimee Daniels ’12, Alya Elsayed-Ali ’12 and Chelsea Merritt ’12.

Courtney Knowling ’09 received the honor of being named the Harvey E. Beech Outstanding Senior.

The 2008 Black Alumni Reunion was another truly amazing success!

BAR 2009 continued the tradition of “Celebrating Who We Are” by hosting a wide variety of events for Homecoming weekend under the direction of Stacie Hewett ‘89, 2009 BAR chair. For the second year, we began the weekend with a golf tournament at the beautiful Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club. It was an especially appropriate location since we were scheduled to play our arch rivals, the Duke Blue Devils, for the big game. Undergraduate students had the opportunity to hear a presentation on networking and meet other alumni at the Partner Lunch held at the Alumni Center. In collaboration with Diversity and Multicultural Affairs, BAR held a new event – the Carolina Diversity Experience – for alumni children in grades 10-12. Participants enjoyed activities such as a campus tour, admissions information session and the Homecoming Step Show. In addition to the various BAR events scheduled, alumni were also able to attend volleyball and basketball games, and visit the “We Shall Not Be Moved” exhibit at the Wilson Library.

The Sheraton Imperial was the host hotel and location for the premier Light on the Hill Society Scholarship Awards Banquet. During the banquet, many alumni were celebrated and honored for their various accomplishments. In addition to honoring four Harvey Beech Outstanding Alumni, an outstanding senior and a UNC staff member, five first-year students received LOTH scholarships. Five alumni celebrating their 50th anniversary were inducted into the BAR Golden Rams Society.

- Anthony W. Cummings ‘84, Harry L. Jones Sr. ’72, Michael D. Kennedy ‘79 and Charles “Chuck” Watts ‘77 received the Beech Outstanding Alumni award.
- The first LOTH Julius Peppers Scholarship was awarded to Brian Harris. This award was made possible by the generous donation of $100,000 to support African-American students. Julius Peppers is a former UNC football player.
- Matthew D. Biggers ’13, Kanesha S. Henderson ’13, Chelsea M. Jones ’13 and Chanel D. Porter ’13 were selected as 2009 LOTH scholars.
- Krista D. Stepney ’10 was selected as the Beech Outstanding Senior.
- Dr. Melissa Exum, dean of students was selected as the Outstanding Faculty/Staff Award recipient.
- Ella Bernardine Booker ’59 (MED), Junius Butler Francis ’59 (MED), Henry Ell Frye ’59 (JD), Harriett Nunn Haith ’59 (MED) and Ella Simmons Tomlinson ’59 (MED) were inducted as Golden Rams during the LOTH banquet. This honor is bestowed to African-American alumni celebrating the 50th anniversary of their graduation from Carolina.

The banquet recognitions also included a video presentation and tribute to celebrate the life of the beloved Hayden Bentley Renwick ’66. Dean Renwick, lovingly known as “Benny,” passed away unexpectedly in September 2009. He served the UNC community for 18 years and was loved by the many students and alumni whose lives he touched during his time in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and the College of Arts and Sciences.

In addition to the banquet, the evening provided several opportunities for alumni to reconnect while enjoying good food, good music and fellowship. The Vintage Times event (formerly Seasoned Tar Heel Reception) went back to its original roots as a “house party” and was held at a private residence in Chapel Hill. Alumni celebrating milestone anniversaries enjoyed old school music at the Ultimate Throwback Party held in the hotel. The First Friday Black Affair (Hip-Hop party) provided entertainment for younger alumni at Champps Americana restaurant at The Streets at Southpoint Mall. Children of alumni attending the reunion were able to enjoy Carolina as participants in the Tar Heel Kids and Teen camps. BAR was able to provide something for everyone.

While Friday was fun-filled, Saturday was no exception. The morning hours provided various options to see and learn more about Carolina history. In honor of 40 years in print, a “Black Ink” exhibit was held in Wilson Library. Professor Tim McMillan ‘80 led the Black and Blue Tour, taking participants on a walking tour of historic landmarks on Carolina’s campus while discussing the racial history and memories related to those familiar attractions. Family and friends gathered in the Student Union for the dedication of the Hardy Williams Lactation Room in honor of Maleikka Hardy Williams ’94. She was a former Miss UNC, Miss BSM and president of the Carolina Union Activities Board who lost her battle with breast cancer in 2009.

Approximately 700 alumni gathered at the Bell Tower for a traditional Southern tailgate party filled with barbecue, old friends and ‘Beat Duke’ buttons. The crowd moved on to Kenan Stadium to Turn it Blue and watch the Tar Heels defeat Duke 19 to 6.

On Saturday evening, the Black Pioneers (African-American alumni from the classes of 1952-70) held a banquet to celebrate their time at UNC, honor some of their own, and get an update from current students on the current issues on campus. During the banquet, Black Pioneers gave memorial tributes for two Pioneers. Participants heard additional remarks in honor of Hayden Renwick, as well as Rebecca Sellars Clark who passed in January 2009. Ms. Clark was the first licensed practical nurse at the UNC Student Infirmary and a labor advocate at the university. She appeared in the BAR Pathfinders video and shared remarks at the 2007 and 2008 Black Pioneers banquets. The current BSM president and Black Ink editor gave presentations during the program. The current student NAACP vice president presented information regarding a project that would document the stories of Black Pioneers and preserve that history.

By popular demand, the Alumni Party provided good music as well as casino games and prizes. The weekend ended with a great inspirational service. The speaker was a former campus minister, with gospel music provided by the current UNC Gospel Choir as well as an alumni ensemble of former BSM Gospel Choir and UNC Gospel Choir members.

Despite the difficult economic climate, we were fortunate to have corporate and alumni sponsors that made it possible to plan such a large variety of activities. BAR 2009 was a great success and had great attendance. We continued to celebrate our Carolina history with old friends while making new memories. What a great way to spend time in Blue Heaven. From exclusion in the 1800s through integration in 1951, to acceptance, togetherness and the creation of the Light on the Hill Scholarship, Carolina has made great strides. Because of the continuous dedication of reunion volunteers, the GAA and Carolina alumni and friends, BAR continues to serve as one of the primary ways in which African-American alumni remain involved, informed and connected to our great University.

Thirty Years of BAR saw the addition of many new events, such as An Evening with Marion Jones ’97 – a talk and book-signing with former UNC track and basketball star; The Kickoff - an alumni mixer with The Leverage Band from Durham, NC; Fences presented by Playmakers Repertory Company and Zumba Fitness with Courtney Moore Legins ’00. New community service events during the reunion included, a toiletry drive to benefit Freedom House and the Be the Match bone marrow registry drive. Participation for the community service events was astounding.

The following Harvey Beech Outstanding Alumni awards were presented during the LOTH Scholarship Awards Banquet:

- Outstanding Alumni: Rochelle Riley, ’81, Alfred “Al” White ’76, Phail Wynn Jr., ’89 (MBA) and Michael L. Zollicoffer ’85 (MD)
- Outstanding Faculty/Staff: Terri C. Houston
- Outstanding Senior: Christen B’anca Glenn ’11
- LOTH Peppers Scholar: Keia Faison ’14
- LOTH Scholars: Jared E. Giles ’14, Ceewin N. Louder ’14, Brandon D. Neely ’15 and Vashti N. Robinson ’14

The commitment and diligence of the planning committee, increase in participation, enthusiasm of alumni and guests, increase in corporate sponsorships and the addition of reunion events ensured an unbelievably successful 2010 Black Alumni Reunion.

BAR continues to grow each year and BAR 2011 was no exception. BAR exceeded its previous numbers of participation with 1466 reunion participants. We had several sold out events including the Chapel Thrill Day Party, the Tailgate Party Our signature events include The Light on the Hill Scholarship Banquet, the Black Pioneers dinner with keynote speaker Mel Watt ’67 were a huge success.

BAR opened for the second year with registration on Thursday night and with the Student Alumni Dinner held in the Alumni Center. Janora McDuffie ’99 was the keynote speaker and greatly appealed to current students and alumni with 167 attendees. The Thursday night celebration continued at the Sheraton Chapel Hill hotel for the Alumni mixer, music provided by alumnus Brian Dickerson ’00.

Each committee went above and beyond to ensure they provided alumni with a stellar event and fantastic memories. The Social Committee revamped and went all out with the planning of each party to include new branding of each event. This year a concerted effort was made to market to young alumni to increase their participation in the weekend events. The Social Committee with their creative twist launched the newest social activity, called the Chapel Thrill Day Party held at the Top of the Hill on Franklin Street.

Overall, BAR 2011 was an amazing experience as chair. I am very proud to have worked with an exceptional group of individuals who love CAROLINA with all of their heart. I believe our love for Carolina was felt in each activity that was planned.

The BAR 2012 weekend began on Thursday with registration at the Sheraton Chapel Hill. Many participants arrived on Thursday to attend the Student Alumni Dinner at the Alumni Center. There were record numbers of students in attendance and the Black Pioneers served again as table hosts. Students and alumni were inspired throughout the evening and the speaker, Bomani Jones ’05 (MS), was well received by all. The Outstanding Senior Award was presented to Alexis Monet Davis ’13 during dinner. The Social Indulgence Mixer at Shula’s provided a time for great networking, free cocktails, and music.

The festivities continued on Friday with the return of the Day Party which included the National PanHellenic Council Alumni Greek Stroll-Off competition, won by the ladies of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. The people, food, and music provided a great atmosphere.

The Light on the Hill Society Scholarship Awards Banquet proved to be as inspiring as in past years. The BAR committee decided to add categories to the Harvey E. Beech Outstanding Alumni Awards:

- Outstanding Young Alumni :: Robert Selden III ’94
- Overall Achievement :: Keith Sutton ’92
- Overall Achievement :: Anita Walton ’92
- Overall Achievement :: Kenneth Ward ’84

After another successful LOTH Banquet, alumni and friends mingled to enjoy a Jazz Social, a new addition to the schedule.

The Tailgate kicked off bright and early under a Carolina Blue sky and alumni, family, and friends gathered to enjoy excellent food and great memories before the football game. After the game and other activities, some attended the very inspirational Black Pioneers Dinner and later partied and socialized at the beautifully decorated Alumni Party. Others enjoyed the Vintage Times Party which included two comedians. This was a bonus addition and was enjoyed by many who came out to support BAR.

On Sunday morning, we continued the tradition of the Inspirational Service and concluded a wonderful and eventful weekend with the first Gospel Brunch. The Gospel Brunch celebrated the 45th anniversary of the Black Student Movement. Reflections from past and present BSM presidents during the Brunch were heartwarming and well received by everyone in attendance.

Black Alumni Reunion History

Overall, BAR 2012 was a success and continues to increase alumni participation. With an awesome planning committee, it was my honor to be a part of the GAA’s largest and oldest affinity reunion; a reunion that annually provides a memorable weekend for everyone who continues to support this traditional Carolina Homecoming event.

BAR 2013 - first, I must recognize and applaud the outstanding work of the planning committee and GAA staff. We made a concerted effort to operate with a level of preparedness worthy of BAR’s history and reputation, and the entire team responded magnificently. Everyone on the team performed at a very high level. There were certainly a few hiccups with vendors. However, based on the feedback from attendees, no one noticed - which is a testament to the ability of the entire team to improvise and adapt. One of my favorite descriptions of teamwork is a football metaphor that goes something like this: “When there’s a fumble, you cover it. You don’t say I didn’t drop the ball.” I don’t know who deserves attribution for that quote, but it describes perfectly the camaraderie demonstrated by the planning committee and GAA staff throughout both the preparation and execution phases of BAR 2013.

BAR 2013 also saw the resurrection of the cultural extravaganza which was extremely well received. Securing the Friday Center to host the demonstrations of dance, spoken word, vocals and Greekdom was a particular coup. The weekend provided a platform to recognize a host of deserving alumni, current students and community partners to include the following:

- Issack Boru, ’14 Outstanding Senior Award
- Benjamin Boykin II, ’72, Overall Achievement
- Wade H. Chestnut III ’66, Trailblazer Award
- Lisa A. Gillespie ’88, Harvey E. Beech Outstanding Alumni Award
- Donnie Hoover ’71, Harvey E. Beech Outstanding Alumni Award
- Deborah Stroman ’86 (MA), Hortense McClinton Outstanding Faculty Award
- Peppers Scholar Victoria L. Davis
- Peppers Scholar Jordan M. Peterkin
- LOTH Scholar Sierra J. Atwater
- LOTH Scholar Elizabeth J. Neal
- LOTH Scholar Christopher W. Miller
- LOTH Scholar Alexis C. Williams
- Community Partners: Table Ministries, Inter-Faith Council, Uplift Project, Inc.

Lastly, the fellowship I enjoyed during BAR 2013 was earnest and passionate. Irrespective of class year, hometown, major, North campus or South, in-state or out, Greek or non-Greek, UNC’s Black alumni forged new friendships and strengthened old ones during the first weekend of November 2013, and I was there to witness it all. I am supremely proud to have had a hand in it. We put in a tremendous amount of work, and it paid off handsomely. Hark the Sound.

At Carolina,
We believe that diversity defines who we are and where we’re headed. For over 200 years, UNC has been a beacon of innovation—a title we couldn’t have achieved if we only had one type of student.
Help us find the best and brightest minds from all backgrounds. Then, encourage them to create a MyCarolina page at admissions.unc.edu/mycarolina.

There’s no such thing as a typical Tar Heel.

Major: Public Policy Analysis

Current Residence: Oakland, CA
Spouse or Partner: Ray Pifferrer
Number of Children: 5 nieces, 3 nephews

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Many favorites! Cheering at Campus Y Frosh Camp, beating Dook in the Dean Dome, sweating in Great Hall jams, hanging in the Pit/Quad/Carmichael 2nd floor lounge, performing with Ebony Readers, learning from favorite professors Joanne Woodard and Soyini Madison, and making some of the best friends that I still have today.

My Carolina Story ...
Once long ago (1985), it was love at first sight, beckoned by campus dogwood trees waving spring greetings. I had other choices but no tough decision. I arrived: big-eyed and wet behind ears. Learning and new friendships started immediately. Mistakes were made; bricks were tripped upon. Learning continued amidst delicious memory-making; blooming commenced. All too soon, it was time to springboard into the next challenge, but I was sensibly rooted and equipped to fly. Thanks, Carolina!

During the past 25 years I have ...
Built a purpose-driven life as a philanthropy professional and community activist, traveled to the six inhabited continents, dedicated myself to being a good spouse and uncle, gained 20 pounds, cultivated a practice as a creative artist and performer, and tried to leave positive impressions all along the way.

Number of Children: 1

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Woolen gym pick up games, Burn Out, Great Hall parties and graduation day.

During the past 25 years I have ...
I have been in a constant state of self improvement. I have laughed, cried, loved and lost, traveled and stayed still. I have been charitable yet selfish. I have taken every opportunity to learn from life’s lessons and show compassion to my family, friends and strangers alike. I continue to strive to leave a positive imprint on the world.
Angela Chadwick
Major: Business Administration

Spouse or Partner: Ken Grimes

During the past 25 years I have ... been having the time of my life! After UNC, I earned a JD from Harvard Law School and later, I earned an MBA from Wharton School of Business. Professionally, I have provided legal and business counsel to corporate clients as an attorney for Troutman Sanders, Motown Records, MCI and the Atlanta Housing Authority.
I have traveled to Europe, India, Africa, Hong Kong, the Caribbean, French Polynesia and all over the US. I played mas at Carnival in Trinidad in full costume, ran a half marathon and learned to salsa dance. Best of all, I married my high school sweetheart from NCSSM. Life, so far, has been great!

Dennis B. Clemons
Major: Industrial Relations
Hometown while at Carolina: Jacksonville, Florida
Current Residence: Jacksonville, Florida

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Passing my Statistics Final Exam during the Spring Term of my senior year and realizing that I would graduate with my degree in Industrial Relations.

My Carolina Story ...
I was a student-athlete from the Sunshine state that accepted a football scholarship to relocate several hundred miles to the Tarheel state. Talk about a cultural adjustment! I had to adjust to town life as compared to city life. My 5 years were encompassed with academic and athletic lessons that helped shape me into a functional citizen in American society. Carolina is with me everywhere and I’m thankful for the Carolina experience.

During the past 25 years I have ...
During the last 25 years I have been a coach (football, basketball and track) and teacher (22 years) in the Duval County Public School System. I have influenced and been influenced by many people and my experiences have been rewarding.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
There are so many favorites...Carolina basketball & football games, parties at Great Hall, guys vs girls dance challenges, initiation into DST, Greek step shows, Mom & family visiting from home with containers of roast beef, mac & cheese, and collard greens (still warm), hanging out w/friends, pitching in only $2/e for gas and my twin sister, Teresa, being at Carolina with me & having my back.

My Carolina Story ...
I first visited Carolina the second semester of my high school senior year and immediately fell in love with it. I applied late-spring, got acceptable and have been a Tar Heel ever since. While at Carolina, I quickly adjusted to the large campus, the college curriculum, late-night study sessions and immersed myself in the many opportunities student life had to offer. This included participating in intra-mural sports, joining the Opeyo Dance Troupe and pledging Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

During the past 25 years I have ...
Done my best to enjoy life to the fullest, always keeping God first. I have been an active member of my church, danced with my church’s liturgical dance team, then with a local Christian performance dance company for many years. I have been employed by Wells Fargo Bank for 20 years and am currently a Technical Project Manager supporting voice network projects in the Mid-Atlantic region. I have continued to root for my home team, the Carolina Panthers, as an original owner of Permanent Seat Licenses (PSL’s) and season tickets since the inaugural 1994 season. I have actively spoiled my nieces and nephews who I call “my babies”, and have supported the community and charitable organizations through various events. Life has been good.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Standing, sitting and sleeping in line for over 24 hours to get tickets for the first game in the Dean Smith Center. The massive line of true Tar Heel fans reached from Carmichael Auditorium through mid-campus, and of course it had to be the closest night ever. However, on January 18, 1986, when the game was played with a win against Duke, it was all worth it!!

My Carolina Story ...
Very simply... I Love Carolina!!! I was a true fan even before entering my freshman year. My years at Carolina were filled with great experiences, and life lessons which created tremendous confidence to take on my life’s goals.

During the past 25 years I have ...
I served 20 years in the U.S. Army as a Military Intelligence Officer; I traveled the world with assignments in Germany and Korea and several deployments in support of OEF/OIF in Afghanistan and Iraq. I retired in the rank of CW4 in July 2011; I spent the last three years working with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

My favorite Carolina memory ...
My favorite memories involve performing with the Ebony Reader’s Onyx Theater and singing with The Black Student Movement Gospel Choir. I specifically remember the experience of performing in E. Patrick Johnson’s Diaspora Love. We literally should have gotten an Academy Award for that performance! “I think about it all the time…” Do you remember that Patrick Johnson?!

My Carolina Story ...
I came to Carolina as a very “green” freshman. I had dreams of being the next great entertainer! However, I was introduced to a variety of concepts and a way of thinking that would shape my beliefs and values for years to come. I fell in love with the beauty of spoken literature and chose to study it formally. As a college English instructor, I weave it into my curriculum and make the study of English come alive for my students!

During the past 25 years I have ...
During the past 25 years, I have had a variety of experiences. I began my professional life as a probation officer. My husband rescued me from that profession, and I took some time to learn to be a mother. We now have three sons, Romeo III, Rafael, and Royan. My oldest is now in college. During this time, I have also worked as a job coach/developer for adults with developmental disabilities. I currently teach English at Pitt Community College in Greenville, NC where I also serve as the chair of the Multicultural Activities Committee. I write! I sing! I enjoy life, but it’s not over! I have so much more to do!

My favorite Carolina memory ...
There were a lot of great memories at Carolina, but my favorite would have to be during the time of waiting in line, sleeping outside to get those Carolina vs Duke basketball tickets.

During the past 25 years I have ...
During the past 25 years I have been working and enjoying life. I have a wonderful family and we vacation as a group quite often. Traveling is my passion and hopefully will be doing it for the next 25 years. I am very active in Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. and spend a lot of time working with the undergraduates at three of the universities in Raleigh.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
My favorite memory is auditioning for the BSM Gospel Choir. Someone came to my dorm room and said, ‘I heard you could sing. You should audition for the choir’. I auditioned for the choir and for the next four years the choir became my family and created a long string of memories that I’ll always cherish. Many choir members are still my close friends.

My Carolina Story ...
I had already decided to go to a different college with several of my closest friends when the opportunity to attend Carolina came about. I felt that it was no coincidence and I couldn’t pass it up. I immediately fell in love with Carolina and never looked back. It was the best decision I ever made and has afforded me a lifetime of experiences I would not have had anywhere else. Forever proud to be a part of the Carolina legacy.

During the past 25 years I have ...
...been married 19 years, had two kids and worked at UNC (all 25 yrs). I met my husband at Carolina and have made many friends as a result of being a student and employee. I have worked with many students, faculty and executives in my various roles at the Kenan-Flagler Business School. I have volunteered on the Black Alumni Reunion Committee for many years. Looking forward to the next 25 years. Go Heels!

My favorite Carolina memory ...
I have too many favorite memories from Carolina, I can’t list just one. But all of them include the friendships that I made, the roommates who will always be my “besties” and my sorority sisters who I will forever share something special with. My years at Carolina will always be a part of me...always.

My Carolina Story ...
I’m from the Northeast, and very few out-of-state students were accepted into Carolina (at the time). With that, I’m proud to be a graduate of one of the most highly respected universities in the country. #tarheelstrong

During the past 25 years I have ...
Wow...25 years...let me exhale on that for a moment (insert feeling old cliche here). Well, let’s see – I went to graduate school, got married, moved back to NYC, started my career in television production, worked tirelessly as a freelancer, had a son, moved to Orlando, started teaching, but now I’m back to freelancing in TV. Whew! Twenty-five years have gone by fast, but I feel blessed so I can’t complain.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Hanging out in the 9th floor lounge in Hinton James watching friends play spades; going to school dances, sitting on stone the wall on Franklin St. the night the drinking age went up from 19 to 21 and watching people take the last legal drinks for a couple of years, walking to church from Hinton James to Carrboro in high heels.

My Carolina Story ...
From small town, rural NC to a great family and career in upstate NY, my UNC undergrad and MBA degrees and experiences have opened many doors!

During the past 25 years I have ...
Tried to live a faith-based life. Got married. Had twins. Moved to Raleigh, Winston-Salem, Lexington, KY, and Manlius (Syracuse), NY. Had multiple corporate marketing roles. Enjoy my role in career management at Cornell University. Twins are now seniors in high school, so a new phase of life will soon begin.

My Carolina Story ...
Having attended Project Uplift during high school, I fell in love with the campus of UNC. I was so excited when I was accepted. I loved living on South Campus in Hinton James Dorm. That was the BEST place to live. Everyone came down to Hinton to visit, party, etc. I pledged Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc in Spr 1987. And I absolutely love my sorors and line sisters to this day. They are the best. I had a great time as an undergraduate at UNC. Too many memories that will last a lifetime.

During the past 25 years I have ...
Got married to my best friend, fellow UNC alum, Bernard Timmons ’91. We are the parents of two beautiful and intelligent children. Daughter Jessica is a first year law student at North Carolina Central and son Kameron is a freshman in college. I currently work as the Payroll Administrator and Legal Affairs Liaison for the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas. I am very active at my church serving as Admin Asst to the Senior Pastor as well as several other leadership positions. I was licensed to preach in January 2012. I am very grateful for the opportunity to serve the Kingdom in whatever capacity.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Parties in Great Hall and studying all night with my friends in the dorm.

My Carolina Story ...
A NC girl who knew at 12 that the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill was where I wanted to attend college. I had a great 4 years there getting an education and learning about life. I met the man I am married to while there. I love my University and I always will.

During the past 25 years I have ...
Enjoyed my life. Learned a lot still. I learn everyday. Missed my college years, but glad I can experience it again through my son as he is a senior in HS, Class of 2015. Kept in touch with a lot of college buddies but not enough. And realized that these were some of the best years of my life. Living young, carefree and debt free. Who knew I would really have to do a thing called work.

My favorite Carolina memory ...
Going to the first Carolina/Duke Game in the Smith Center in Jan 18, 1986 as a freshmen.

My Carolina Story ...
I always wanted to attend Carolina from a young age. My Carolina inspiration is Dr. Rose Elaine Gunter (Bynum) c/o 1976. I remember visting her in Morrison Dorm back in the day. I was so excited to get accepted in the spring of 1985. I had a great time at UNC from 1985-1989. I remember when drop/add was in Woollen Gym and you picked up the cards for your classes and feeling overwhelmed! I met some life long friends during this journey. It is always a wonderful feeling to be on campus again.

During the past 25 years I have ...
Worked on campus in the financial aid office at UNC, been a probation/parole officer, worked in program administration for Community Corrections, and now as a Court Management Specialist for the NCAOC. For fun, I plan events such as parties, showers and weddings.

IN THE COLLEGE OF Arts and Sciences

IN THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, THE HEART AND SOUL OF CAROLINA, WE BELIEVE THAT LEARNING NEVER ENDS.

Our liberal arts coursework prepares students for life's opportunities and surprises and engenders a love of learning that lasts a lifetime. All Carolina students spend their first two years in the College; 70 percent choose to continue their education in one of our 45 areas of study.

A gift to the College supports faculty and students, helps Carolina maintain its national leadership in liberal arts education and raises the stature of the entire university. With a gift of $1,500 or more, you will become a member of the College's Dean's Circle. Young alumni who graduated between 2010 and 2014 can join for a gift of $500.

To learn about how you can support your favorite department at Carolina, go to college.unc.edu/foundation. Select "Give Now" if you're ready to make a gift. You may also call the Arts and Sciences Foundation at 919/962-0108 for giving options.
At Carolina Primary Care, we vow to provide exceptional health care for you and your loved ones. With extensive experience, Dr. Anelia Rose, a graduate of UNC and a Tar Heel for life, provides compassionate, genuine personalized care to her patients. Carolina Primary Care’s services include preventive health care for adults, with a focus on management of chronic diseases such as diabetes and hypertension, as well as well-child checks and sports physicals. We have special interest in adolescent and women’s health. Located near Southpoint Mall, we are accepting new patients and look forward to the opportunity to serve you.
