SUNDAY, 8 NOV.

10 - 11 a.m.

Inspirational Service, Sheraton Chapel Hill

End your Carolina Homecoming weekend on a high note and join us for the annual BAR Inspirational Service. Get ready for an uplifting message from Carey Casey '79, former UNC football player and current chief executive officer for the National Center for Fathering in Shawnee Mission, KS.

11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

A Brunch with Black Pioneers, Sheraton Chapel Hill

The Real Nitty Gritty: the Black Experience at UNC a Half Century Ago

Tickets: Standard - $35/GAA Member - $20

What was it like to be an African-American student at Carolina during the early days of integration? A panel of Black Pioneers, African-American students at UNC during that period, will share some of their experiences and answer questions about what it was like when they stepped out of their almost all-Black environments to become one of the few Black faces on the campus at Chapel Hill at that time. It was not an easy thing to do. Come and learn about it firsthand. It will be eye-opening, to say the least.
