A World Apart

The story of tourism revolves more than a tinctur and a spout. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the three most important elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the chapter to the rich story of your life.

With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged in this critical moment of the Allied war effort. As both a tactical and a psychological blow to Hitler and his forces, the June 6, 1944, invasion at Normandy marked the beginning of the end of World War II.

Your personal travel story should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the chapter to the rich story of your life.

Inspiring Moments

Visit the site of Normandy's American Cemetery, located on a hilltop overlooking Utah Beach and within the site of the battle. Along with a historical presentation and tour, you'll learn the story of the battle's impact on the Allied war effort and Normandy's World History Center, which features a room of historical and descriptive exhibits.

Local Flavor: Enjoy a Farewell Dinner.

B # D

HONFLEUR

ELECTIVE [Excursion] and Educational Focus: At the famous Words of the Wild Life exhibit, discover Normandy's history and the scenery that inspired Monet to paint his "Water Lilies" series. Discover Normandy's art legacy as the words of inspiration. Experience the Rosary de Mont-Saint-Michel, a 2015 sculpture created by world-renowned artist. Enjoy the Le Gros Horloge, a 14th-century astronomical clock.

Local Flavor: Enjoy a welcome dinner at a restaurant on the island of Mont-Saint-Michel.

DAY FOUR

MONT-SAINT-MICHEL

Excursion: Le Mont-Saint-Michel. Walk across the north end of the island, creating a bridge between the mainland and the abbey, where the monks have lived for centuries. Visit the abbey to see the treasure house, the collection of religious art, including the abbey church, the cathedral and the tombs of the monks. Enjoy a visit to the abbey before returning to your home for the duration of your stay.

Local Flavor: Enjoy coffee at a local café.

DAY FIVE

Normandy & D-Day

On June 6, 1944, despite mounting challenges, the Normandy landings were the largest coordinated military invasion in world history on the beaches of Normandy, inspiring the beginning of the end of World War II. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's troops fought 950 years ago, from the cliffs of Dover to the beaches of Normandy. In 1944, they succeeded in securing a beachhead from which to launch a conquest of France from German control. As both a symbol of heroism and Allied and French resistance, the site is considered a wonder of the Western world.

Local Flavor: Lunch at a restaurant in Romsey.
