Sail beside the limestone karst pillars and islands and the lush, forested shores of majestic Ha Long Bay in a traditional Vietnamese junk. Walk among the incredible fortifications of the Forbidden Purple City in the former imperial city of Hue and enjoy stunning mountainous coastline views on the famous Hai Van (Ocean Cloud) Pass. Stroll through the lively, traditional riverfront market while interacting with local craftsmen and artisans and admire the brightly colored, intricately carved Assembly Hall in ancient Hoi An, an old-world gem and UNESCO World Heritage site. In the historic French Colonial city of Saigon, explore the spectacular contrast of old and new architecture.

Southeast Asia one of the most enriching and exotic regions on Earth. Discover Vietnam's rich legacy of cultures as well as the imprint of Japanese, Chinese, French and American influences that helped shape this fascinating part of the world. Experience the social, intellectual and spiritual heartbeat of Vietnam's captivating people in its palaces, pagodas, temples and tombs, and in the stunning fusion of its past and present.

Be on deck for the spectacular sail away in Hong Kong's harbor this evening.

Hanoi, Vietnam

From Haiphong, travel by way of scenic roads through an intricate patchwork of well-manicured rice paddies to historic Hanoi. The undeniable charm of this capital city resides in its shaded boulevards and bucolic parks, while the city center is a marvelous time capsule of 1930s French-colonial architecture. Along the shores of the peaceful Hoan Kiem Lake, residents can still be seen performing traditional Tai Chi exercises. Begin your walking tour in famous Ba Dinh Square and see a testament to more recent history, the imposing, granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. The Beaux-Arts-style former French Governor's Residence is adjacent to the garden and modest cottage where Ho Chi Minh lived in the 1960s. Nearby, see the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda—one of Vietnam's most iconic temples. Visit the Temple of Literature, founded in A.D. 1070 and which educated scholars in Confucianism for more than 400 years. Walk through Hoa Lo Prison, the infamous "Hanoi Hilton" where captured pilots were held during the Vietnam War.

Hue and the Hai Van Pass

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Hue, located on the banks of the Perfume River and one of Vietnam’s most intriguing and alluring destinations, was the Imperial City of the Nguyen kings from 1601 to 1945. Explore its Imperial Citadel—rivaling Beijing’s Forbidden City in sheer immensity—and see its massive ramparts and moat dating from the 18th and 19th centuries. Tour the Imperial Closure and its Forbidden Purple City, a citadel within a citadel, formerly reserved only for the royalty and servants of the Nguyen Dynasty. Visit the 17th-century Thien Mu (Heavenly Lady) Pagoda, built to ensure the country’s prosperity, according to a legendary prophecy.

Designed by famed French architect Alexandre-Gustave Eiffel, Saigon's beautifully preserved, neoclassical Central Post Office was opened in 1891 and today remains Vietnam's busiest post office.

The pagoda's seven-tiered, octagonal Phuoc Duyen tower is the highest stupa in Vietnam.

Enjoy lunch overlooking the scenic Perfume River, then visit the impressive tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, considered one of the most beautiful architectural works of the Nguyen dynasty and designed by the emperor himself.

Drive through the picturesque mountains to the breathtaking Hai Van (Ocean Cloud) Pass, the 15th-century boundary between Vietnam and the kingdom of Champa.

Hoi An

Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hoi An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic port for the very lucrative spice trade. Later, Chinese, Japanese, Indian and Dutch merchants settled Hoi An's ancient town, and today this UNESCO World Heritage site is a well-preserved example of a 15th- to 19th-century trading post with more than 800 period buildings still intact. Admire the Japanese-style covered bridge, the emblem of Hoi An. Visit the intricately carved grand temple of Phuc Kien Assembly Hall and its workshop for traditional handcrafts, including woodcarving, mat-weaving and embroidery.

Experience the colorful atmosphere of an outdoor market, a quintessential aspect of daily life in Saigon.

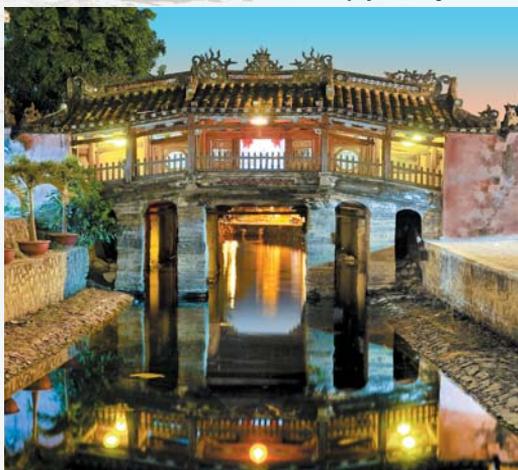

Stroll the city's colorful riverside market and observe locals engaging in the art of bartering. Then, visit the impressive Museum of Cham Sculpture in Da Nang, exhibiting the world's largest collection of Cham sandstone works of art. Stop at the foot of the landmark Marble Mountain, where skilled carvers chisel marble jewelry and sculptures.

Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)

Saigon has remained a vibrant convergence of French romance and Vietnamese flair, where women still wear the traditional national costume of áo dài dresses, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. Visit the imposing Reunification Hall, which once served as the South Vietnamese Presidential Palace; the lovely 19th-century, European-style Central Post Office; and the War Remnants Museum, which offers a unique perspective on the Vietnam War through the eyes of the Vietnamese. See the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the opulent Saigon Opera House, both a distinct reminder of the city's French Colonial history. Then, visit the Ben Thanh Market, one of the oldest surviving structures in Saigon, where merchants offer exotic spices, aromatic cuisine, traditional Chinese medicines and alluring handcrafted wares and textiles.

The iconic Lai Vien Kieu (Lady of the Pagoda) Bridge was built to link Hoi An's Chinese and Japanese quarters.

A "replacement" reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply. CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip including Pre/Post Program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 ($50 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $800 ($200 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: Optional insurance coverage is available for baggage, accident and trip cancellation/interruption. We strongly recommend for your protection that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. The GAA will send you an application upon receipt of your reservation.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.
