One of the main images of this page is a comforting place that is warm and inviting, with soft lighting and a cozy atmosphere.

Enrichment: Painting & Urban Architecture. Most Cuban artists advocate for contemporary city planning, but as Cuba's architecture dates back to the 15th century, there are many beautiful old buildings that have been preserved. This is a great opportunity to appreciate the unique architecture of Havana.

Food. Enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant.

Enrichment: Revolution & Cultural Cuba. Discover the legacy of the Cuban Revolution, which began in 1956 and led to the establishment of the socialist state of Cuba in 1959. This period is marked by social and economic changes, including the nationalization of industries and the development of a planned economy.

Experiences. Meet a Cuban architect and participate in an architecture workshop. Learn about the history and development of Cuban architecture and how it has influenced modern design.

Overview. Cuba has a unique history, with a rich and diverse heritage. The country is known for its beautiful beaches, vibrant culture, and friendly people. It is also a popular destination for tourists who want to learn more about the history and culture of this fascinating country. This page offers a glimpse into the rich history and culture of Cuba.
Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

Join your Tar Heels and friends on a Cuba journey of discovery. For five decades, travel to this vibrant Caribbean nation has been strictly regulated, but recent events have made it easier for U.S. citizens to experience life on this beautiful island.

This trip is uniquely planned by travel experts to comply with U.S. regulations. Your journey puts you in contact with ordinary Cubans who are doing extraordinary things. Learn directly from those about their culture, their history and their heritage. During your trip, you’ll visit the homes of authentic Cuban citizens, attend the select aches of Cuban music and watch a dance.

Participate in this special People-to-People educational exchange program, authorized by the U.S. Treasury Department’s Cuban Assets Control Regulations. Space on this eight-night journey is limited to 20 travelers. Be sure to book this experience soon.

One of the main themes emerging is the desire for dreams and aspirations of the Cuban people working to improve their lives. From artists and musicians to religious leaders, the opportunities to discover Cuba through its everyday people are fascinating and enigmatic. Immerse yourself in the culture, art, history and revolutionary history. Then journey to the verdant countryside and rural communities and tobacco plantations, to discover the agricultural heritage of Cuba. The name evokes images of cigar-country, tobacco plantations, and Spanish governors. Admire the 19th-century Catedral de Santa María la Menor, the Iglesia de la Santísima Trinidad, Cuba’s oldest church; and the Museo de la Santísima Trinidad, Cuba’s oldest museum, dedicated to the history and culture of the city. Visit the Museo de Arquitectura; and the Museo Estampas de Cuba. Enjoy dinner at a paladar. During a period of reform in the 1990s, many Cubans were allowed to open their own restaurants. Each paladar offers a unique setting and menu.

Day Four: B | L | D

Cienfuegos: Cuba’s Gateway to the Americas.

Join a local artist, discuss his work, and learn about the artistic heritage of Cienfuegos. Casa Fuster, the home and studio of Jose Fuster. Join a local artist, discuss his work, and learn about the artistic heritage of Cienfuegos. This pedestrian-only thoroughfare has state-run buildings trimmed in faded pastels; and puffing men and classic cars; colonial architecture; and the Museum of the Revolution. Learn about typical Cuban life. Venture through the Museo Provincial de Historia de Cuba. See La Quinta Santa Venia. Enjoy dinner at the Hotel Jagua, and enjoy dinner at El Lagarto, and talk with the medical staff about their work.

Day Five: B | L | D

Trinidad: A Historic & Cultural Treasure.

Explore the city of Trinidad, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In Plaza Mayor, see the Iglesia de la Asunción and the Museo Nacional de las Cienfuegos. Visit the Parque Martí, and admire the pretty cathedral. Explore the city of Trinidad, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
