UNESCO World Heritage
The historic site of Normandy

The World Heritage designation is the highest international designation of heritage. The painted walls of the D-Day beaches and the Bayeux Tapestry are two of Normandy’s most celebrated treasures. Discover these and more when you travel with AHI.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION JUNE 4-12, 2018
Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

Journey to Normandy, a region that has played a significant role in the political, religious, cultural and governance development of Western civilization. This engaging program includes an exploration of the historic D-Day beaches and memorials, as well as other highlights of the region, including Mont Saint-Michel, the Bayeux Tapestry and the charming port towns of Bayeux and Deauville.

Your itinerary has been specially planned for travel experts to include accessible cultural experiences and preferred access to popular attractions. An exclusive educational agenda features lecturing educational briefings by expert speakers that provide meaningful context for what you will encounter during your travels.

This remarkable trip combination includes the security, ease and value of group travel with ample opportunities for independent exploration. Delight in the camaraderie of traveling with fellow Tar Heels and friends and still have time to make your own discoveries. Space is limited and new inquiries for the trip will open up quickly, so book your experience today!

Yours in travel,
