Schedule and General Information
MAY 10–13
2018
Full Weekend Schedule
Any updates to this schedule will be provided at check-in.
Dress for all events is casual unless alternate recommendations are provided.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

Reunion Weekend Map
The map in this booklet illustrates general parking and shuttle information. Detailed parking information will be emailed to each registrant on May 7.

To register, please visit alumni.unc.edu/springreunions or return your previously sent hardcopy registration form to:

UNC General Alumni Association
P.O. Box 660, Chapel Hill, NC 27514-0660

Questions? Contact Jennifer Guy ’09 at (919) 843–0446 or reunions@unc.edu.
5:30–7 p.m.
Class of 1968
Opening Reception
Graham Memorial

Begin Reunion Weekend at a private reception at Graham Memorial. Enjoy light hors d’oeuvres with beverages, including beer and wine. Casual attire. Reunion check-in packets will be available for pick-up. Price $25; GAA member price $15. This event is sponsored by Galloway Ridge at Fearrington and Reunion Patrons.

6–11 p.m.
Class of 1953–65th Reunion Dinner
The Carolina Inn

The class of ’53 will gather at The Carolina Inn for a 65th reunion dinner. A reunion photograph will be taken during the evening. Dress is coat and tie for men and dresses or evening pantsuits for women. Price $60; GAA member price $45 (with option to add $10/person to include wine before and during dinner).

6–11 p.m.
Class of 1958–60th Reunion Dinner
The Carolina Inn

The class of ’58 will gather at The Carolina Inn for a 60th reunion dinner. A reunion photograph will be taken during the evening. Dress is coat and tie for men and dresses or evening pantsuits for women. Price $60; GAA member price $45 (with option to add $10/person to include wine before and during dinner).

6–11 p.m.
Class of 1963–55th Reunion Dinner
The Carolina Inn

The class of ’63 will gather at The Carolina Inn for a 55th reunion dinner. A reunion photograph will be taken during the evening. Dress is coat and tie for men and dresses or evening pantsuits for women. Price $60; GAA member price $45 (with option to add $10/person to include wine before and during dinner).
1:30–2:30 p.m.
Reunion Tours – Guided Walking or Bus Tours of Campus
Both tours depart from the George Watts Hill Alumni Center

The walking tour is a pleasant way to revisit the older sections of main campus, although there are plenty of new sites to see along the way. The bus tour is the best way to see the new and familiar of main campus while also learning about the ever-expanding southern edges of UNC.

1:30–2:45 p.m.
FEATURED ENRICHMENT SESSIONS (CONCURRENT)

How the World Changed Us and How We Changed the World
Room 504, Wilson Library
See full description on page 8.

The Triumph of Christianity: How a Forbidden Religion Swept the World
Blue Zone (concours level), Kenan Stadium
See full description on page 8.
1:30–5:30 p.m. GAA Vintage Slideshows narrated by Andy Griffith ’49 and Charles Kuralt ’55 (continuous showings)
The Carolina Club, George Watts Hill Alumni Center
Andy Griffith ’49 narrated an award-winning slideshow used by the GAA during the 1970s. Charles Kuralt ’55 narrated another award-winning slideshow used by the GAA during the 1980s. Both shows feature beautiful and historic photographs and entertaining narrations that make them fun to view even decades later. Drop in and out at any time throughout the afternoon to view as much of these vintage shows as you wish.

3–5:30 p.m. Bell Tower Open
Climb the Bell Tower for great views of campus.

3:15–4:15 p.m. Guided Campus Bus Tour
See 1:30 p.m. tour description.

3:15–4:45 p.m. FEATURED ENRICHMENT SESSION
N.C. Politics Now: Tradition, Tumult, Transition Revisited
Blue Zone (concourse level), Kenan Stadium
See full description on page 8

4:30–5:30 p.m. Guided Campus Bus Tour
See 1:30 p.m. tour description.

5:30 p.m. Class of ’68 Reunion Photograph
George Watts Hill Alumni Center, outside steps

6–7:30 p.m. Reunion Check-In Reopens
Blue Zone Upper Club (fifth floor), Kenan Stadium (site of Friday Social)

6–8 p.m. Friday Social
Blue Zone Upper Club (fifth floor), Kenan Stadium
This festive, casual social, featuring a cocktail-style menu, will take place at The Blue Zone Upper Club. All Spring Reunions Weekend participants and alumni are invited to join for spectacular stadium views and good conversation. Price $40; GAA member price $25. Casual attire.

9–10 a.m. FEATURED ENRICHMENT SESSION
Saturday Morning in Chapel Hill: Carolina Across the Generations With Current UNC Students
Pleasants Family Assembly Room, Wilson Library
See full description on page 9.

9 a.m.–Noon Pharmacy 50+ Club Reunion
Beard Hall
Alumni of the Pharmacy School class of ’68 and preceding classes are invited to Beard Hall for the annual 50+ Club Reunion. Registration will open at 9 a.m., followed by breakfast at 9:30 a.m. The program of speakers and the pinning ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. Stick around from 11 a.m. to noon for a tour of the building. Contact Heather Lewis at hlewis22@email.unc.edu or (919) 966–1929 for details.

9 a.m.–1 p.m. Wilson Library Open House
Wilson Library
Visit Wilson Library for music, memories and special exhibitions. The library evokes memories of 1968 with a photo slideshow highlighting the class of ’68 and a soundtrack of hits from that year provided by the Southern Folklife Collection. Visit the exhibition The Truth in Eight-Point Type: The Daily Tar Heel Celebrates 125 Years of Editorial Freedom in the North Carolina Collection Gallery and the Rare Book Collection’s exhibition Reconstructing Frankenstein’s Monster: Mary Shelley’s World in Print in the Saltarelli Exhibit Room.

10:15–11:30 a.m. FEATURED ENRICHMENT SESSION
Carolina’s Future: Promising or Precarious? How Alumni Can Stay Engaged
Pleasants Family Assembly Room, Wilson Library
See full description on page 9.

11 a.m.–2 p.m. Registration Check-In Reopens
Lobby, George Watts Hill Alumni Center

Noon Annual Alumni Luncheon
The Carolina Club, George Watts Hill Alumni Center
Join us for this annual luncheon, during which the GAA’s 2018 Distinguished Service Medals will be presented to Phil Clay ’68, Dwight Stone ’73 and Teresa Williams ’77. Greetings from Chancellor Carol Folt; entertainment from the UNC Clef Hangers. $30/person. Dress is business casual.
2–4 p.m.
Campus Y Open House
Campus Y
Enjoy engaging conversation and tour the building, which was renovated in 2007, with current students. We also will welcome back alumni leaders from the class of 1968—come with your own stories to share!

2:30–3:30 p.m.
FEATURED ENRICHMENT SESSION
UNC History Tour: Controversies Written in Brick and Mortar
Meet at Old Well
See full description on page 9.

6–11 p.m.
Class of 1968 50th Reunion Dinner and Dancing With The Embers Featuring Craig Woolard
The Carolina Inn, 211 Pittsboro St., Chapel Hill
Gather with your classmates at the beautiful, historic inn for drinks followed by an elegant, seated dinner. After dinner, enjoy dessert and the live music of The Embers. Dancing is encouraged. Dress is coat and tie for men and dresses or evening pantsuits for women. Cash bar available. Price $75; GAA member price $55. The price per person was reduced thanks to donations from class of ’68 Reunion Patrons.

---

SUNDAY, MAY 13

8–9:30 a.m.
Class of ’68 Commencement Processional
Kenan Football Center, fifth floor
Don’t miss this opportunity to participate in a wonderful Carolina tradition in which you join the procession into Kenan Stadium for the 2018 Commencement. This event is consistently rated by past 50th reunion participants as a favorite event of the weekend. Parking instructions and all necessary details will be provided in reunion packets for those who RSVP. Spouses and guests are welcome to join the fun for coffee and socializing in our gathering spot and will have a perfect vantage point to watch the procession. Following the procession, which should end before 9:30 a.m., you may depart or enjoy the rest of the Commencement program.

9 a.m.
Commencement
Kenan Stadium
Keynote Speaker: Social entrepreneur Rye Barcott ’01, a former Marine captain and co-founder of Carolina for Kibera, a nongovernmental organization based in the impoverished Kibera neighborhood of Nairobi, Kenya. He is author of It Happened on the Way to War: A Marine’s Path to Peace, a book that juxtaposes social entrepreneurship with military service, and currently serves as co-founder and CEO of With Honor, a new civic organization that is helping elect to Congress a cross-partisan coalition of post-9/11 veterans. Barcott received the GAA’s Distinguished Young Alumni Award in 2006. Read more about him in the May/June 2004 and May/June 2012 issues of the Carolina Alumni Review, available at alumni.unc.edu/CAARarchive.
FRIDAY, MAY 11

9:30–11 a.m.
Tradition, Transition and Tumult: Recalling the 1964–1968 College Experience

Room 504, Wilson Library

This is a great opportunity to start the weekend for the class of 1968, engaging with your classmates. Participants will join in guided reflection through small-group sharing and general discussion. Professor Lloyd Kramer, director of Carolina Public Humanities and former chair of UNC’s history department, will provide a global historical context about the tumultuous times during our Carolina years. Mal Watlington ’68 and Judy White ’68 will facilitate this session. Join this session for reflections on the class of ’68’s years at Carolina during a time of change and upheaval. All alumni and guests are welcome.

1:30–2:45 p.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

1:30–2:45 p.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

How the World Changed Us and How We Changed the World

Room 504, Wilson Library

Living through the tumultuous ’60s while attending Carolina left its mark on the class of ’68 in very different ways. In an interactive and engaging session facilitated by alumni David Kiel ’68 and Sharon Rose Powell ’68, participants will reflect on how their time at UNC shaped their attitudes, ignited lifelong passions and helped them define and pursue their goals. All alumni and guests are welcome to attend.

SATURDAY, MAY 12

9–10 a.m.
Saturday Morning in Chapel Hill: Carolina Across the Generations

Pleasants Family Assembly Room, Wilson Library

This session has been a favorite one for reunions going back to 1981. It’s like to be a student today compared to undergraduates in the 1960s? Dick Baddour ’66, retired after 45 years as a University administrator in student affairs, undergraduate admissions, the School of Law and athletics, leads a lively discussion. He will pose questions to a panel of four current students and four graduates from the class of ’68. Audience participation is encouraged.

10:15 –11:30 a.m.
Carolina’s Future: Promising or Precarious? How Alumni Can Stay Engaged

Pleasants Family Assembly Room, Wilson Library

There is good reason to be optimistic about Carolina’s future. Research funding has reached $1 billion. Today’s undergraduates can study abroad, conduct original research, invent useful devices and learn how to be an entrepreneur. Alumni giving is at a record level. At the same time higher education in general is losing public support and is often critiqued in the media. In recent years, the N.C. General Assembly and the UNC System Board of Governors have become more active in changing programs at the campus level against the wishes of many faculty. Furthermore, since 2008, the General Assembly has reduced funding of UNC by several hundred million dollars in real terms. A panel of former UNC trustees (including some ’68 class members) and other higher education leaders will consider the “best of times/worst of times” nature of our current situation. We will discuss ways that alumni can get involved to assure that Carolina’s future remains promising.

2:30 –3:30 p.m.
UNC History Tour: Controversies Written in Brick and Mortar

Meet at the Old Well

Many of Carolina’s significant historical moments, founding myths and controversies are recorded in the physical environment of the north campus. The antagonists confront one another: Silent Sam vs. the Unsung Founders, the Rev. McCorkle vs. Col. William Davie, the architecture of Old East vs. New East, Wilson Library vs. Morehead Building. Some artifacts reveal little-known secrets: the role of freemasonry in the founding of UNC, where the Speaker Ban was challenged, who really owned the land on which UNC stands and how the history department’s early home came to be named for a founder of the KKK and is now unnamed. David Kiel ’68 and friends lead this tour based on information from the N.C. Historical Collection, the work of UNC historians and the Chancellor’s History Task Force.
CAMPUS FAVORITES

You may wish to visit these free campus attractions during Reunions Weekend.

Ackland Art Museum
101 S. Columbia St. (near Franklin Street)
Wednesday–Friday, 10 a.m.–9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.; Sunday, 1–5 p.m.

Open since 1958, the museum holds a permanent collection of more than 17,000 works of art, featuring North Carolina’s premier collections of Asian art and works of art on paper (drawings, prints and photographs), as well as significant collections of European masterworks, 20th-century and contemporary art, African art and North Carolina pottery. Visit ackland.org for information about current exhibits.

Campus Y
Special open house for reunion participants on Saturday, May 12, 2–4 p.m.

For over 150 years, the Campus Y has been at the heart of UNC. Its mission was and is the pursuit of social justice, and it was a social hub for decades. The building was fully renovated in 2007.

Charlie Justice Football Hall of Honor
Kenan Football Center
Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m.

View photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of football in Chapel Hill. The James A. Heavner Theater offers seven dramatic videos.

Carolina Basketball Museum
Ernie Williamson Building, Skipper Bowles Drive
(near the Dean E. Smith Center)
Monday–Friday, 10 a.m.–4 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m.–1 p.m.

Enjoy memorabilia along with multimedia and interactive exhibits highlighting the phenomenal Carolina basketball program through the years. Photo: goheels.com

Morehead Planetarium
Tuesday–Friday, 10 a.m.–3:30 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.–3 p.m.; Sunday, 1–4:30 p.m.

Visit moreheadplanetarium.org for listing of exhibits, planetarium shows and costs.

Wilson Library
9 a.m.–5 p.m. on weekdays. Special open house hours for reunion participants on Saturday, May 12, 9 a.m.–1 p.m.

Visit Wilson Library for music, memories and special exhibitions. Visit the exhibition

Bell Tower
Friday, May 12, 3–5:30 p.m.

Climb the stairs and enjoy the views.

The Truth in Eight-Point Type:
The Daily Tar Heel Celebrates 125 Years of Editorial Freedom in the N.C. Collection Gallery and the Rare Book Collection’s exhibition Reconstructing Frankenstein’s Monster: Mary Shelley’s World in Print in the Saltarelli Exhibit Room. On Saturday, May 12, 9 a.m.–1 p.m., the library evokes memories of 1968 with a photo slideshow highlighting the class of ‘68 and a soundtrack of hits from that year provided by the Southern Folklife Collection.

Women’s Basketball Museum & More
Carolina Basketball Museum
Carmichael Arena
Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m.

The fully renovated facility includes the Women's Basketball Museum, as well as new trophy cases and memorabilia recognizing the history of the gymnastics, volleyball and wrestling teams, with video screens throughout the arena. The hallways are wood-lined and decorated in graphics with Carolina’s most outstanding athletes.
Special Requests
Please note any dietary requests when you register. With proper notice, special meals can be made available at most events.
Care will be taken to ensure event locations are wheelchair accessible. If you need additional support, such as for visual or hearing impairments, call the GAA at (919) 843–0446 by April 27, and we will assist you with arrangements.

Event Costs and Refund Policy
The General Alumni Association has made every effort to keep reunion costs down, and the prices reflect direct costs of each event. Requests to change or cancel your registration must be received in writing to our office no later than April 30. The requests may be made by mail (postmarked by April 30), fax or email. After this date, cancellations and changes are nonrefundable. All refunds will be processed after the Reunions Weekend. Refunds will not be given at the registration center.

Parking
Paging and associated fees for all Spring Reunions Weekend events are controlled by the UNC Department of Public Safety. Due to spring being the busy season for the department, detailed parking information will be emailed to all registrants using the email address on file on Monday, May 7.
For additional parking questions during the week of the event, please contact the GAA at (919) 962–1208.
Those participating in the class of 1968 Commencement processional on Sunday will receive special parking instructions with their registration packets at check-in.

Shuttles
Shuttles will be available by request during designated times on Friday and Saturday, with stops at the George Watts Hill Alumni Center, near Wilson Library, The Carolina Inn and all reunion event sites as needed.

GENERAL INFORMATION

REUNIONS CHECK-IN AND INFORMATION DESK
Pick up your Reunions Weekend registration packet, filled with helpful information, nametags and more. GAA staff will be available to answer your questions.

THURSDAY  5:30 – 7 p.m.  Graham Memorial  (class of ‘68 only)
           6 – 7 p.m.  The Carolina Inn  (classes of ‘53, ‘58 and ‘63 only)
FRIDAY    9 a.m. – 4 p.m.  Lobby, George Watts Hill Alumni Center
           6 – 7:30 p.m.  Blue Zone Upper Club  (fifth floor), Kenan Stadium
                        (site of Friday Social)
SATURDAY 11 a.m. – 2 p.m.  Lobby, George Watts Hill Alumni Center
                        6 – 7 p.m.  The Carolina Inn, 211 Pittsboro St.  (class of ‘68 only)
PARKING AND SHUTTLE INFORMATION:
Detailed parking locations will be emailed to all registrants on May 7 using the email address we have on file. Recommended parking on Friday and Saturday will be in the Rams Head Parking Deck located on Ridge Road next door to the Alumni Center.

Shuttles will be available by request during designated times on Friday and Saturday with stops at the George Watts Hill Alumni Center, The Carolina Inn and all reunion event sites as needed.

Those who are participating in the class of '68 Commencement processional on Sunday will receive special parking instructions with their registration packets at check-in.

For additional questions regarding parking during the week of the event, please contact the GAA at (919) 962–1208.
Celebrate Your Reunion This Spring

Register at alumni.unc.edu/springreunions by April 27. Already registered? Update your registration with these exciting new events. Look inside to explore.