The Galapagos Islands
8 Days of Wonder & Amazement
THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

In the extraordinary archipelago Charles Darwin called "a little world within itself," surround yourself with swimming-basking-flying examples of perfect adaptation.

Feel the thrill of encountering the flora and fauna that famously inspired Darwin—and in his footsteps, generations of nature lovers. Undiscovered by Europeans until the 16th century, the Galapagos Islands hold a central position in modern scientific and evolutionary history. In a place where human presence is relatively minimal, take the opportunity to observe and photograph these remarkable species up close—either sitting quietly to watch blue-footed boobies or snorkeling with inquisitive and playful sea lions.

Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends!

Join fellow Tar Heels and friends as we explore the Galapagos Islands. Designated the first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978, the Galapagos Islands have been described as a “unique living museum and showcase of evolution,” and they are home to a fascinating array of wildlife inhabiting an unspoiled ecosystem, living in harmony with their human visitors.

This exciting journey features a day of guided touring in Quito plus an intimate cruise through the archipelago with up-close access to endemic species. Expert naturalists guide you through the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Accommodations for this adventure are aboard the Isabela II, a 40-guest vessel with spacious cabins, local cuisine, and a staff dedicated to ensuring both your comfort and maximum enjoyment of this truly extraordinary destination and its diverse inhabitants. And sailing by small ship allows for flexibility in the itinerary to maximize wildlife viewing, as well as access to exclusive ports.

Day-by-Day Itinerary:

Day 1: En Route from U.S. / Arrive in Quito, Ecuador
After an evening arrival in Quito, transfer to your award-winning hotel for a comfortable night’s sleep.
Overnight: Casa Gangotena – Quito

Day 2: Quito
Head out for a full-day, guided walking tour of historic Old Town. A local expert will take you through the Quito neighborhood called San Roque, where you’ll visit with local artisans, shopkeepers, hat makers, and sweet confectioners. Explore the San Francisco Market—one of the oldest in the capital—up the hill on Calle Rocafuerte. There, learn about the unique fruits and vegetables grown in Ecuador, local culinary traditions, as well as meet herbal healers with shops in the market.

Continue your journey downhill to the cobbled street of La Ronda, featuring balconies festooned with colorful flags. Stop by a chocolatier to learn how cacao beans are processed, and taste the finest chocolates of Ecuador!

Next, head north toward the political heart of the city. Following a brief narrative, stroll to the Jesuit church of La Compañía to admire its stunning gold-leaf interior. A lunch of Ecuadorian specialties will be served in the beautiful Restaurant Cedrón.

In the afternoon, head to the Casa del Alabado Archaeological Museum, within a restored 17th-century colonial mansion, to view its collection of Pre-Columbian art. This evening, meet your traveling companions for a welcome reception and prepare for your upcoming adventure.
Overnight: Casa Gangotena – Quito (B,L,R)

Day 3: Quito / Flight to Baltra / Santa Cruz - Embarkation
Arrive by plane to Baltra Airport and transfer to the Itabaca Channel to ferry across to Santa Cruz Island. After a short, scenic drive across Santa Cruz Island, arrive in the Highlands to enjoy lunch and visit the iconic species for which these islands are named. Spot the saddle-backed shell of the lumbering Galapagos giant tortoise and walk among them while your naturalist guide describes their habits as well as the conservation efforts surrounding this remarkable reptile.

Take a late afternoon stroll along the main street of Puerto Ayora before embarking on Isabela II.

Join the captain this evening for a cocktail and briefing on the exciting activities that are to come.
Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 4: Floreana
Floreana is perhaps best known for its colorful history of buccaneers, whalers, and colonists. After breakfast, board the pangas for coastal exploration of Baroness Cove. Look for the bobbing heads of sea turtles, or vibrant Sally Lightfoot crabs and marine iguanas clinging to the intertidal rocks. Visit the historic Post Office Barrel, which originated in the late 1700s as an unofficial mail box. Whalers going out to sea would deposit letters for ships returning home to collect and deliver. Today postcards continue to be hand carried to far-flung destinations by other visitors.

Mid-morning snorkeling off the beach provides the opportunity to observe sea turtles and colorful fish, or perhaps kayak to spot wildlife near shore. Following lunch, walk along Punta Cormorant to see the flamingos, stilts, and sandpipers that inhabit a brackish-water lagoon. A short walk leads to a sandy beach composed of coral ground so fine that it feels like flour. Green sea turtles nest here, and it is a good place to see sting rays near shore.
Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 5: Española
After breakfast, hike the tumbled terrain of Punta Suárez to the blowhole that shoots water 50 feet into the air. Along the way, observe unique sea bird colonies, including striking Nazca boobies and swallow-tail gulls. The Galapagos Albatross—the largest bird in the archipelago—is found only on Española Island, and only between April and December.

In the afternoon, disembark and relax at Gardner Bay on an expansive, white coralline beach, where you can watch sea lions, Hood mockingbirds, and finches.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 6: San Cristóbal
This morning, arrive at the eastern tip of the island for more spectacular wildlife viewing. San Cristobal is the only place in the islands where you can find the three species of boobies (Nazca, red-footed and blue-footed) in the same area. Choose a hike up the hill in search of their nests, and admire the unique landscape and spectacular views of the beach below. Or, take a walk on the beach and, if conditions are favorable, there is a chance to swim, snorkel or kayak.

After lunch on board, venture out on a panga ride along the shores to Cerro Brujo’s dramatic beach to enjoy a coastline stroll and more bird watching. Join fellow guests and crew for a festive farewell toast followed by dinner.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Bid a fond adiós to the Isabela II crew this morning prior to departing San Cristóbal for Guayaquil, where you will spend your final night.

What Guests Are Saying:

“The Galapagos Islands and Isabela II were exceptional. Snorkeling was excellent. Food was excellent. Staff were all very pleasant. Machu Picchu was impressive and our guide made it very educational.”
“We are not experienced with group tour or cruise events and this experience was a fantastic introduction. From beginning to end it was professionally run with very competent and knowledgable individuals.

Favorite highlights include the Quito city tour, the amazing variety of hikes and boat rides to view the incredible wildlife and birds of the Galapagos. The snorkeling opportunities were fantastic, especially snorkeling from the pangas.

We can’t think of one thing that we would have changed—it was all good.”

–Mary Ellen H., Portland, OR

“This was a fabulous trip. A true once in a lifetime experience. It could not have been better in any respect.”

–Robert & Anne H., Indianapolis, IN

“This was a bucket list trip for me and a dream come true. I was impressed with this program from start to finish and the efficiency and professionalism exhibited by all the support staff from guides to ship crew to porters to bus drivers to hotel staff. The highlights, besides the natural wonders of the Galapagos and the architectural masterpiece of Machu Picchu and surrounding Cloud Forest, were without a doubt the first rate guides leading both of these programs. They were knowledgeable, professional, inspiring and clearly proud of their countries and cultures. They truly made this trip the success it was.”

–Beth S., Bowling Green, KY

“I was impressed with the program and how it was executed. Everyone was “on board” in experience and involvement for the passengers and their needs. I felt the crew and the staff cared about the passengers and their experiences. I didn’t expect the quality of service and was very pleased.

The highlights were the panga excursions around the lava rocks, snorkeling and hiking to the nesting areas of the albatross, red-footed and blue-footed boobies. The blowhole hike and the walk among the seals was so exciting.

I thank everyone involved and hope to travel to this destination again.”

–Therese C., Rose Hill, KS

“Seeing an iconic UNESCO World Heritage site like nowhere else in the world. The animals were so accessible because they are so well protected. Having guides that answered every question given them.
WOW! Being on board a small vessel and getting to know so many wonderful people, travelers and crew and guides alike. Feels like family now.”
–Jerry C., Matthews, NC

“The trip was definitely the best I have ever been on. It was fabulous. That is the word we decided on as a group. I didn't even mind getting up at early because I knew the day would be packed with amazing things. It was a good combination of fun and educational experiences. The guides were so accommodating. They went above and beyond.”
–Kathi T., Norwood, MA

“The naturalists onboard the Isabela II were excellent. We were so impressed with the range of qualities that the naturalists possessed. They were always so enthusiastic!

Orbridge was attentive to every detail of this tour and so my overall impression was excellent! Best trip I've ever been on.”
–Julie L., Sachse, TX

“The crew of the ship were all very friendly and helpful. I especially appreciated the attention that the Panga crews gave to their responsibilities, for example, when we were snorkeling and when we were disembarking and landing.

The food was excellent. I especially enjoyed all the fresh fish. It was fun to experience authentic Ecuadorian cuisine.

We had an excellent naturalist. Her knowledge is phenomenal and her attitude is extremely professional.”
–Pam & Jim W., Dallas, TX

“The Galapagos Islands are like being in paradise. What made the time there really great were the naturalists. They were extremely well-informed about every aspect of the Islands. The crew on the ship were superior as well... and the food!”
–Bonnie W., New Orleans, LA

“I have traveled to 19 countries. This Galapagos trip was the best one ever!

All of our excursions were wonderful. I enjoyed them and learned a lot!

Our chief naturalist was an amazing leader and an excellent person to give us so much information about the wildlife and about everything. We all really liked him a lot!
I certainly will go on future Orbridge trips. I was very happy with every aspect of the trip, from the initial planning until we returned home.”
–Barbara M., Memphis, TN

“The Orbridge staff was responsive and professional. The information in the documents was clear and thorough.

Honestly, as much as I loved the animals and the guests, our Chief Naturalists were two of my favorite aspects of the entire trip. Their enthusiasm was infectious as well as their fascination with the animals, plants, climate, geology, and history of the Galapagos.

This was my first trip with a sponsoring university and it far, far exceeded what I could have possibly wished for. All the guests raved about the experience and were thrilled with the trip. Several commented about how organized everything was, how cared for they felt, how amazing the naturalists were, and how good the "bang for the buck" the trip was.”
–Elizabeth P., Alexandria, VA

“The tour of Old Town was a real highlight. We enjoyed all of the stops and lunch was fabulous.

Food was outstanding and the wine was plentiful. Service was very attentive. The Ecuadorian meal was delicious and a real treat.

The guide promised us the trip of a lifetime and he and his team delivered! Every effort was made to ensure that travelers saw as much as possible, including an impromptu stargazing discussion. The attention to safety was much appreciated. All three naturalists were outstanding and delivered a huge amount of information ongoing.”
–Karen & Scott B., Colorado Springs, CO

“It was a fabulous trip—one of the best in our history of travels. It is obvious that your company put a lot of thought and planning into this adventure.

The ship staff and crew were most helpful. The Zodiac panga operators were attentive to what was happening with each person in the boat. The cabins were always cleaned and tidy when we returned from each day’s adventure. We have been on several cruises on larger ships and the Isabela II staterooms/cabins were actually large and better laid out than what we had experienced on bigger ships.

We were both so glad we did the Machu Picchu extension. What an adventure! I can’t say enough good things about expedition leader. He was all around excellent and knowledgeable. He has a wealth of knowledge on the Incan history as well as their architecture, building methods, why they built Machu Picchu and how it functioned as a community.”
–Paul P., Topeka, KS
Optional Pre-Tour:

MASHPI LODGE

The breathtaking surroundings of the Mashpi Rainforest Biodiversity Reserve look and feel like a dream—misty clouds, crashing waterfalls, and endemic species of wildlife found in the Ecuadorian Chocó, one of the most diverse ecosystems in the world. Take the unparalleled opportunity to visit both a cloud forest and a rainforest—each rich with a myriad of flora and fauna species, in every layer—from below the forest floor to above the canopy.

Spend your days exploring hidden paths, discovering colorful flora and fauna, and relaxing amidst the contemporary comforts of Mashpi Lodge, located within this private reserve consisting of roughly 70% lush primary forest in its 3,212 acres.

Itinerary:

Day +1: Arrive Quito, Ecuador
Arrive at your hotel to relax and refresh before tomorrow’s full day of activities.
Overnight: Casa Gangotena

Day +2: Mashpi Lodge / Mashpi Reserve
After an early breakfast, depart via group transfer, journeying through the northwest corner of Quito’s Metropolitan District. Embrace the sweeping landscape along the western flank of the Andes next to La Mitad del Mundo (The Middle of the World), which marks the equatorial line. Along the way, visit the archaeological ruins at Tulipe—said to have belonged to the ancient Yumbo civilization of pre-Inca Quito—set in a magical forested location. After stretching your legs, continue the final descent into Mashpi Reserve and watch as the vegetation changes with every significant drop in altitude, following the course of the Rio Blanco.

After about 3.5 hours, arrive at Mashpi Lodge where staff will greet you and take you to the Expedition Room for a quick briefing on the property and activities offered at the lodge.

Your naturalist guides will explain the activities offered during your stay.
Enjoy lunch, settle into your room, and perhaps take a brief rest. In the afternoon, you’ll have the opportunity to begin one of the offered activities. Perhaps take a guided hike to one of several waterfalls, or along the Howler Monkey Trail to the Life Centre which aims to educate visitors about the butterfly’s life cycle and other wildlife found in Mashpi. Here, relax in lounge chairs set on an expansive observation deck while spotting wildlife, and later, visit the adjacent butterfly house.

As the evening sets in, set out on an optional guided night walk along the Luminous Trail in search of large and small (and some transparent!) creatures, including frogs, snakes, insects, and even tarantulas.

Overnight: Mashpi Lodge (B,L,D)

Day +3: Mashpi Lodge / Mashpi Forest Canopy Exploration

As morning breaks, listen for the bright songs from the menagerie of birds stirring around the Lodge. A staggering 400 species of birds—including some 36 endemics—are estimated to inhabit the forest, fluttering through the canopy.

Mashpi is also home to a plethora of plant species, from ferns and bromeliads to a vast variety of orchid species—many newly-discovered, which biologists come from the world-over to observe.

For those who would like to enjoy the beauty of dawn in the forest, early morning activities are organized before breakfast. Perhaps take part in one such activity, an early bird viewing and hummingbird garden (host to 32 hummingbird species) visit with breakfast al fresco. Enjoy birds when they are most active and calling and when views are often the most spectacular.

After lunch, take an opportunity to view the Mashpi Forest canopy during a guided ride aboard the Dragonfly—an aerial cable car that offers a unique and spectacular way to see an expanse of the reserve. Go for the entire 2-hour ride, or opt to combine the Dragonfly experience with a guided nature or waterfall hike.

Located close to the lodge, the Sky Bike makes for another unique and exciting way to explore the forest canopy. Designed for two people to use at once, you can pedal between two points of the forest approximately 655 feet apart. Next, climb the Observation Tower to take in the reserve in its entirety and watch the sun set behind the clouds.

This evening, join fellow travelers to hear a collection of lectures by a resident biologist or naturalist including, “Secret Wildlife of Mashpi: the Camera Trap Project,” “The Chocó: a Biological Hotspot” about the formation and diversity of the Chocó, or talks about current scientific research projects.

During your time in the Peruvian highlands, you will have a chance to explore the famous city of Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Visit the Pisac Market, ride the train through the Urubamba Valley, marvel at the massive stone stairs at Ollantaytambo, and break bread in the home of a local Peruvian family outside of Cusco.

Welcome to Peru! After your adventure in the Galapagos Islands, enjoy leisure time in Guayaquil before flying to Lima for an evening arrival. Next, board a Vistadome train to Machu Picchu, the most important site of the vast Inca empire. Enjoy views of the mountains, villages, and Inca vestiges as you descend into the Sacred Valley. From there, a short bus ride takes you to the archaeological site of “The Lost City of the Incas.” Begin a guided exploration of the enigmatic citadel. Walk the plaza of Saqsayhuaman, an Inca complex overlooking Cusco with stones so enormous the largest is estimated to weigh up to 200 tons. Visit the San Pedro local market, offering a sense of everyday life in Cusco, and the San Blas artists’ colony for a picturesque stop. Mid-day, retreat to Villa Tipón, which is just outside the city of Cusco and set in the midst of awe-inspiring mountains and incredible gardens full of vividly colored flowers. A local family hosts a delicious Peruvian lunch followed by a traditional Shaman performing an Andean ceremony. Next, we’ll visit the Qorikancha, or Sun Temple—now referred to as Santo Domingo Church—to admire its smooth basalt foundation and learn about its period of transformation during Spanish rule.
