A World Apart

The story of how Europe became the land of our dreams is enlivened by a profusion of charm. And no part of that story is as captivating as the vast system of canals that dot the land. From the waterways of the Low Countries—Holland, Belgium, and France—to the Dalmatian coast of Croatia and Montenegro, the emphasizing of water means the emphasizing of life. And the emphasis of life means the emphasis of history!

The warmest routes of your journey are the profound, perilous river journeys you'll experience. We're all about the journey, not the destination, and these tours will allow you to experience the vivid tales of centuries past.
