The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the easygoing lifestyle involved in projects at Soweto. Meet the young people of Nelson Mandela's South Africa, walking in the footsteps of the prison. Today, former prisoners lead insightful tours of Robben Island, where Mandela and other political prisoners were held. Within sight of Cape Town, but still a world away, Robben Island was home to a prison that held many famous political prisoners. From their remote prison, these prisoners helped change the course of South Africa’s history. This is an intimate and moving tour that allows you to immerse yourself in the story of Africa’s struggle for freedom.

It should also be an experience that touches the heart, inspiring moments of humanity and compassion. cape Town ... in the whole circumference of the earth.”
