JOURNEYS
for the CURIOUS TRAVELER
2021
Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

As we look toward 2021, we’re excited to celebrate our 50th anniversary of Tar Heel Travel. A lot has changed since our first tour departed in 1971, but the transformative nature of travel remains. Traveling allows for uplifting personal connections, changes in perspective and the enriching of hearts and minds.

Since 1982, the GAA has partnered with AHI Travel to offer a wide variety of travel opportunities. Each tour is accompanied by a professional AHI Travel Director who has an intimate knowledge of the destination, along with a close eye on the current travel environment. You can take comfort in secure travel arrangements and enjoy a uniquely special travel experience that is enriched with exclusive events and regional experts.

Furthermore, in light of the Covid-19 pandemic, AHI Travel has updated their on-tour and cancellation policies. They offer flexibility when booking a tour and vigorously administer on-tour protocols to maintain traveler health and safety.

As you browse this collection, you’ll discover adventures that incorporate AHI’s signature educational travel, such as our ever-popular Alumni Campus Abroad® programs and intimate Small Group trips. Other traveler favorites include immersive Art, Culture & People journeys and River Journeys along the world’s storied waterways.

Plus, you’ll find more opportunities than ever to customize your experience with a selection of included excursions, as well as elective activities and extensions. In addition, if you’re traveling solo, you’ll find an assortment of programs with a waived single supplement fee.

More details about these itineraries and our entire travel program are available on our website at alumni.unc.edu/travel. If you’d like to get in touch with us, Douglass Payne ’04 and Catherine Nichols ’89 can be reached toll-free at (877) 962-3980. You’re also encouraged to email us at enrichment@unc.edu.

Like you, we hope for a “new normal” in the months ahead and recognize that many travel dreams have been put on hold. Know that travel safety and peace of mind remain the highest priorities for the GAA and AHI Travel.

We look forward to welcoming you aboard a Tar Heel Travel tour when you are again comfortable traveling.

Yours at Carolina,

Douglas S. Dibbert ’70

AHI is committed to you

Their passion for authentic, responsible and life-changing travel experiences shapes every program.

AHI Travel is a creative travel company recognized around the world for deluxe, personalized group travel programs. Richard and Arlene Small, two travel industry pioneers, founded the company in 1962, when they launched the first alumni travel programs at universities across the United States. Soon after, they introduced AHI in Canada. They quickly earned an outstanding reputation for quality, service and value, which AHI continues to deliver today to alumni and individual travelers alike.

Personal involvement shapes every aspect of AHI’s tours. In fact, AHI leaders Brian, Joe and Rick Small help plan every program. And long before they finalize a program, their team of experienced travel experts stays in the hotels, eats in the restaurants and visits every site. AHI details the things that matter most (like the number of cathedral steps you must climb or restaurants with the best food and views!) to travelers.

And now, in collaboration with their international suppliers, their team has put into action new protocols for health, safety and cleanliness. These include more rigorous sanitizing regimens for river cruise ships, hotels and motor coaches; social distancing in motor coaches and restaurants; widely available hand sanitizer; and many other protective tactics.

By consistently meeting travelers’ high expectations over the decades, they appeal to educated, cultured and experienced travelers — people like you. Many travelers have been so pleased with their programs that they boast of taking 15, 20, even 30 trips with them!

We know you have many travel options and probably just as many questions. There are many travel options out there to choose from. Call one of AHI Travel’s experts at 800.323.7373 with questions regarding tour logistics, air itineraries or tour rigors. AHI’s representatives look forward to helping you plan your trip.
