

TRUE BLUE POP-UP CARD FOR MOTHER'S DAY

Create a quick and easy pop-up card for Mother's Day, fit for any Tar Heel mom.

MATERIALS

- cardboard (to cut on)
- utility knife (ex: X-Acto® precision knife)
- glue
- paintbrush (for applying glue)
- 1 sheet, Cardstock for the outside (Bring on the Carolina blue!)
- 1 sheet, printer paper for the inside (We chose white.)
- practice paper

CRAFTING TIPS

- Don't pull on any corners that aren't cut all the way; take the time to cut again to ensure neat corners.
- Don't fold on the dotted lines until you've completed the cuts.
- Make some practice cuts on practice paper before starting your project.
- If you notice printer lines after completing your cuts, reverse your paper before gluing.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Print out "Mom" template from our Crafternoon page.
  - If you want to use colored paper, be sure to load into your printer before printing.
- Use knife to cut the solid lines of the template.
- Fold along the dotted lines.
  - The dotted lines on the sides of the paper mark the mid-line.
  - Don't fold any of the letters along this fold.
- Apply a thin layer of glue around the outside edge of your inside paper with your paintbrush.
- Carefully align with cardstock and press to secure.
- Once dry, add your custom message, such as:
  - "You're one Heel of a Mom!"
  - "You're a Priceless Gem!"
