Alec Bradley – Black Market Esteli

I've noticed that many cigar enthusiasts know their favorite cigars come from Nicaragua, but the exact location remains a mystery. Since the term 'black market' alludes to things unidentified or shadowy, I felt compelled to bring Esteli, the cigar capital of Nicaragua, out of the shadows. Black Market Esteli pays homage to the importance of the city and everything it offers to cigar making.

Davidoff – Liberty

The Camacho Liberty Series, now 18 years strong, has become one of the most highly anticipated annual releases for collectors and aficionados of bold, full-frontal cigars. Launched ahead of the July 4th holiday to celebrate and honor the birth and history of the United States. The Liberty Series blends have been comprised of tobaccos from a variety of different origins, as well as vintages.

The 2020 Liberty Series blend utilizes four different primings, all of which come from a single farm and single vintage, and aged four years. This distinct blend truly showcases the versatility and multitude of flavors that can be achieved when utilizing this incredible varietal.

TASTING NOTES: A bold yet smooth cigar with complex flavors including sweet wood, cedar, walnuts, and leather and earth. A great smoking experience that will leave you wanting more.
