2022

Dear Carolina Alumni & Friends,

We invite you to travel with the General Alumni Association's Tar Heel Travel program and AHI. For over 40 years we've partnered with AHI to bring a wide variety of travel opportunities to our Carolina alumni and friends. These educational group tours offer exceptional quality and value, with many trips filling up as soon as they are announced.

Our travelers greatly enjoy the small groups, in-depth learning, and the exceptionally knowledgeable, resourceful, and attentive AHI travel directors. As you can see from the testimonials provided throughout this catalogue, our travelers share their highest reviews on every trip we have offered.

The following pages provide details on the GAA-sponsored AHI programs departing in 2022. You'll see favorites, such as Journey to South Africa and Dutch Waterways, plus trips to some of the most frequently requested destinations, like Italy, France, and England.

More details about these itineraries and our entire travel program are available on our website at alumni.unc.edu/travel. If you'd like to get in touch with us, Douglass Payne '04 and Catherine Nichols '89 can be reached toll-free at (877) 962-3980. You're also welcome to email us at enrichment@unc.edu.

As we look to explore the world again, know that travel safety and peace of mind remain the highest priorities for the GAA and AHI.

We look forward to welcoming you aboard a Tar Heel Travel tour when you are again comfortable traveling.

Ashraf Masoud Travel Director

Born and raised in Egypt, Ashraf has extensive experience as a guide and travel director. He has also managed operations and logistics for corporate board meetings and conferences, including the Global Peace Initiative meeting of People to People International. His passion for people and strong attention to detail placed him in the top 10 of Wanderlust Magazine's 2018 World Guide Awards. Ashraf has earned a bachelor's degree in history from Cairo's Ain Shams University; tour management certification from San Francisco's Tour Management Institute; and a tourist guidance diploma from Cairo's Helwan University. He is fluent in Arabic, English and Spanish and is studying American Sign Language (ASL). Ashraf enjoys basketball, yoga, tai chi, reading, hiking and cooking and looks forward to working as a dive guide with his new diving certificate.

What did you do during isolation?

A. I took this time to learn, advance my skills and have fun. I got my diving certification; a challenge as I did not even know how to swim. I took courses in ASL, which opened my eyes to the beautiful world of the deaf; English writing and grammar; photography; and cooking.

What first sparked your interest in travel?

A. Growing up, my mother instilled in me the love of people and showed me that helping others can improve their lives and mine as well. I was also fascinated by the ancient Egyptians, foreign languages and cuisines. This fueled my interest in traveling and immersing myself in other cultures.

What attracted you to AHI Travel?

A. What makes AHI different is their commitment to delivering a life-changing experience to their guests. Recognizing that their success is a team effort, AHI is very supportive and treats their employees like family.

What is your professional philosophy?

A. Care. Care. Care. A good Travel Director cares deeply about their guests and their comfort and safety. I make sure I am patient when answering questions, listen carefully and respond to their needs. I pride myself in my ability to anticipate and address potential problems while also being flexible to opportunities that will make the guests' experience extraordinary.

Tell us about challenges and successes.

A. I enjoy a challenge. I look at challenges as blessings because they test my resourcefulness. Number one in my experience is a guest losing their passport. I appreciate being recognized by Wanderlust Magazine two years in a row. But I must say, I consider myself the most successful when AHI receives a request from a guest who wants to travel with me on another tour.

Can you share some inspiring moments?

A. I love nature, and observing the animal kingdom has opened my eyes to an astounding world. Leading tours in Africa and seeing the Big 5 is an incredible experience. On a personal trip, I traveled to 40 U.S. states, visiting the major national parks and also searching for the best buffalo wings. (Red Hot & Blue won!) That trip made a profound impact on me. My introduction to the underwater world on my first SCUBA dive was mind-blowing and made me hungry for more.

"Our first AHI experience and it was amazing. I struggle to find anything negative to say about this trip. Food, people, culture, scenery, excursions, hospitality, and travel arrangements were all top notch."

In collaboration with their international suppliers, their team has put into action updated protocols for health, safety and cleanliness.
