Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the Home in Greece expedition! Your trip to Greece will be an opportunity to explore the rich culture and history of this beautiful country, as well as to make new friends and deepen your understanding of the local customs and traditions. This exclusive 9-day adventure is designed for AHI members, friends and alumni of the University of North Carolina, and is led by your AHI Travel Expert.

We are proud to offer you a rare and unique glimpse into Greek culture and history with special access to historical sites and cultural events that are not available to the general public. You will have the opportunity to visit ancient Sparta, the birthplace of democracy, and explore the ruins of ancient Ephesus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. You will also have the chance to taste the delicious local cuisine and learn about the wine-making process.

As an added bonus, you will have the chance to participate in an exclusive event hosted by the General Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina, with special access to the open air theater to watch a traditional Greek play. This will be an unforgettable experience that you won’t want to miss.

We hope you will join us for an unforgettable adventure in Greece! For more information and to book your trip, please visit norcar.ahitravel.com or call 877-962-3980.

Sincerely,

A World of Discovery

A fascinating journey through ancient Greece. Witness breathtaking views of the Aegean Sea, explore the rich history of Athens, and uncover the unique culture of the Mani Peninsula. Immerse yourself in the heritage and beauty of this storied land!

Day 1 | Athens: Arrival
Welcome to Athens! Meet and get to know your fellow travelers at a Welcome Dinner. This evening, meet and get to know your fellow travelers at a Welcome Dinner. Your flight arrives in the evening and you are transferred to your hotel in central Athens.

Day 2 | Athens: Antiquity | Architecture | Art | Culture | Cuisine | History | Natural Beauty
The day begins with a tour of the Acropolis, home to the Parthenon, the ancient多余留迹 of Greek civilization. Afterwards, proceed to Mycenae, a fortified city-state from the Bronze Age. The MYCENAEAN CIVILIZATION developed around 1500 BC and reached its peak between 1400 and 1200 BC, during which time it was the dominant power in Greece. The Mycenaean culture was characterized by a highly developed economic and social system with a strong emphasis on trade and warfare. The city of Mycenae itself was one of the major centers of this culture and is believed to have been the home of King Agamemnon, who led the Greek forces in the Trojan War.

Day 3 | Mycenae and Mystras
This morning, check out of your hotel and depart for Mycenae, one of the most important archaeological sites in Greece. The site is famous for its rich history and magnificent ruins, including the Treasury of Atreus, a large tholos tomb that was once used as a royal grave. After exploring Mycenae, you will travel to the nearby town of Mystras, a small medieval town that once served as the capital of the Byzantine Empire. Today, it is known for its stunning hilltop location and well-preserved medieval architecture. The town is home to several important churches and monasteries, including the Monastery of the Agia Triada, which is considered one of the finest examples of Byzantine architecture in Greece.

Day 4 | Gytheio | Areopoli | Limeni
This morning, travel to Gytheio, a stunning medieval town nestled on the Laconian Gulf. Gytheio was an important trading center during the Byzantine era and today is known for its beautiful port and scenic vistas. After a guided tour of the town, you will travel to Areopoli, a picturesque village on the Mani Peninsula. The village is known for its narrow cobblestone streets and charming traditional Greek houses. Later in the day, you will visit the stunning coastal town of Limeni, known for its beautiful turquoise waters and picturesque harbor.

Day 5 | Limeni: Monemvasia | Areopoli | Limeni
This morning, travel to Monemvasia, a fascinating medieval town located in the Mani Peninsula. To avoid enemy attacks, Monemvasia is connected to the mainland by a narrow causeway. The town is home to several important former churches and monasteries, including the Monastery of the Agia Triada, which is considered one of the finest examples of Byzantine architecture in Greece.

Day 6 | Monemvasia: The Peloponnese
This morning, set off on a tour of the Peloponnese, a region of ancient Greece that was once home to a number of important cities and kingdoms. You will visit the ancient site of Corinth, which was once one of the most important cities in the Greek world, and learn about its history and cultural significance. Later in the day, you will explore the ancient site of Mycenae, which dates back to the Bronze Age and is considered one of the most important archaeological sites in Greece.

Day 7 | Monemvasia: The Peloponnese
