Travel through millennia to Roman times. Begin at the family house of Anne Hathaway, Shakespeare’s wife, in Stratford-upon-Avon. Then, visit the Tudor cottage across the Avon from Anne Hathaway’s home and imagine where William Shakespeare was born. Next, tour the Cotswolds region within its fine cities bursting with Romanesque columns. During your tour, see the heart of the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Visit the Notley Abbey Garden. Enjoy the property’s sights, such as the Georgian manor house and perfectly maintained gardens. Designed by Sir John Vanbrugh, the garden is a splendid example of the 18th-century landscape style. Day 7 | Bath

Arrive in London and transfer to Woodstock. Take one afternoon at leisure to cap off your final evening at tonight’s Farewell Dinner with your fellow travelers. Note: Flights and transfers included for AHI FlexAir packages. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation of your destination. From your reservation to your return home, we are here to ensure you have the adventure of a lifetime.

Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

We’re proud to offer our Carolina Alumni and Friends an enriching journey through some of England’s most admired sites. Venture through the lovely rural countryside to experience delightful villages and beautiful gardens from your base in the charming Georgian town of Wotton. Take in the famous English quintessentials: culture, countryside, and coastline. Environable excursions include a trip to Oxford’s esteemed university and the further rural village of the Cotswolds. Enjoy a daytrip to Shakespeare’s Stratford and Blenheim Palace in the footsteps of Winston Churchill. It’s your time to explore any of the networks against regrets to the ends that Cotswold’s have to offer. Engage with a local family at their traditional rural home and learn about Sir Winston Churchill while roaming the halls of Blenheim Palace. This tour provides great value and we expect a strong response so reserve your spot today.
