In the Footsteps of Yeats. William Butler Yeats, the acclaimed Nobel poet laureate, found inspiration in the beautiful woods of Coole Park and 14th-century Thoor Ballylee, his summer retreat where he wrote many of his works. Learn about Yeats and other famed literary figures as you visit both sites.

The Burren and Cliffs of Moher. Take a fascinating walk over the Burren’s striking landscape of karstic limestone formations with local expert Tony Kirby, who will share geological and botanical insights. Next, delve into the Irish field game of hurling, played for thousands of years, at a museum dedicated to the Gaelic Athletic Association. After a stop to see the iconic Poulnabrone dolmen, delight in the stunning Wild Atlantic Way as you head along the coast to take in the Cliffs of Moher rising dramatically over the ocean.

AH! Sustainability Promise

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, “shoulder seasons.”

AHI Travel Expertise
