Discovery

AHI Connects: Tuscan Winery. Revel in stirring panoramas of Tuscany's rolling hills and vineyards from a hilltop perch! Your visit to a local winery includes a tasting of the property's vintages, a delicious lunch of regional foods and a meet-and-greet with the owners.

Lucca. Uncover marvelous engineering and architecture throughout the streets of Lucca. See the Romanesque Duomo di San Martino, with carvings by Nicola Pisano, and admire the Church of San Frediano and the Church of San Michele. Then walk in the footsteps of nobility in a typical Tuscan noble residence.

Carrara. Travel to Carrara, where Michelangelo chose the gleaming white blocks he transformed into masterpieces. View precious relics at the marble museum, tour a privately owned working quarry and watch a demonstration by a local artist. Step into the city's Romanesque and Gothic Duomo, boasting a remarkable marble rose window and equally stunning façade.

Villa Reale and Montecarlo. The sprawling grounds of the Villa Reale di Marlia are steeped in history and flaunt over 40 acres of neatly landscaped gardens. Once home to the sister of Napoleon Bonaparte, the villa reveals centuries-old fountains, statues crafted from Carrara marble, tiny lakes and immaculately trimmed hedges. Continue to the hilltop village of Montecarlo and visit the Collegiate of Sant'Andrea and the enchanting Teatro dei Rassicurati.

Cinque Terre National Park. Begin in pretty Portovenere; then travel to Manarola, where homes cling to the cliffs. Board a boat for a cruise to Vernazza, perched above the azure water. Along the way, witness the dramatic cliffs and pastel-hued villages that create this special slice of Italian paradise.

Pisa. Delve into the fascinating maritime history of Pisa, one of the most important harbors of the ancient Mediterranean and a Roman naval asset. Visit the Museum of Ancient Ships, home to archaeological finds and well-preserved Roman and medieval ships. In Miracle Square, visit the Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta and Baptistery, and admire the iconic Leaning Tower.

Enrichment

- ▶ The History of Lucca
- ▶ The Life and Music of Puccini

AHI Sustainability Promise

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, "shoulder seasons."

AHI Travel Expertise

Passenger Service Representative | Helps with everything from arranging flights to fulfilling special requests.

Travel Director | Manages all details to ensure a memorable trip.

Travel information | Prepares you fully for your journey.

Expert local guides and lecturers | Provide friendly, knowledgeable service and share their passion for their country.

Let us arrange your flights!

AHI FlexAir | Our personalized air program features transfers, assistance and flexibility.
